Mayor Bans Huge March For 'Peace'

Tear Gas Employed To Scatter Monks, Nuns From Streets

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Riot police backed by paratroopers broke up a series of antigovernment demonstrations in Saigon today after the city's mayor banned a massive Buddhist "march of peace" against Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime.

Several persons were injured and a number of Buddhist monks and nuns were arrested as the heavily armed police scattered the demonstrators with tear gas in one of the heaviest downpours of the year.

The paratroops set up positions on streets to the market. Many units were armed with machine guns.

Ky's opponents demonstrated peacefully in three other cities, including the northern Buddhist stronghold of Hue, while government supporters rallied in another.

Although the political crisis kept many government troops out of the field, a government spokesman said Vietnamese soldiers killed 58 Viet Cong in five ground actions Tuesday, including a heavy Communist attack on the central coast that failed to dislodge the outnumbered defenders.

While fighting remained at a low level generally, the U.S. Command disclosed a new sweep operation by the U.S. 173rd Airborne Division and an Australian regiment in the jungles 40 miles southeast of Saigon. So far 20 Viet Cong have been killed in the nine-day operation.

American forces reported killing 29 Viet Cong in two other continuing operations.

U.S. jets flew 24 missions against North Viet Nam, including an attack on the Red River Valley rail line to Red China. The number of missions was again far below the average before the monsoon rains curbed the air war against the North.

The U.S. military command had ordered all Americans off Saigon's streets this afternoon in anticipation of trouble during the scheduled march from the Buddhist Institute, focal point of past disorders.

Some 2,000 Buddhist followers tried to crash through the barbed wire around the institute

Urges LBJ On Briefings

Dirksen Asks For More Answers On Viet Conflict

WASHINGTON (AP) Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has given President Johnson firm notice that Congress wants more answers to what's happening in Viet Nam.

After hobbling into the Senate on crutches Tuesday — his first appearance there since he broke a thigh bone in a fall May 10— Dirksen told a news conference he had discussed Viet Nam with the President when Johnson visited him at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

The Illinois Republican said during "a reasonably lengthy talk" with Johnson he proposed a bipartisan White House briefing for congressional leaders. The President promised to take the idea under advisement, Dirksen reported.

Dirksen's prodding — coming as it does from an opposition party senator who has backed the administration's Southeast Asia action — may well produce a briefing at which Johnson would answer some plaguing questions about political stability and military progress in South Viet Nam.

At the White House deputy press secretary Robert H. Fleming said he had no comment on Dirksen's proposal.

But the mere fact that the GOP leader disclosed he had suggested it personally to Johnson indicates Dirksen believes congressional leaders need to have more background information to cope with the deterioration in popular support of the war effort.

Johnson has not met with the congressional leaders for several months.

In other developments Tuesday:

— Secretary of State Dean Rusk reaffirmed the U.S. desire to negotiate peace in Viet Nam and said this country shall continue its "far-reaching, persistent efforts to bring the other side to the peace table."

— United Nations Secretary-General U Thant said military operations in Viet Nam should be scaled down in an attempt to initiate peace discussions among the major powers including Red China. The war in South Viet Nam, he said, can no longer be described as a "fight for democracy."

While he avoided any personal assessment of the situation in Viet Nam at the news conference, Dirksen said that opinion polls indicated a downward shift in public support for Johnson's policies there.

He said he has the feeling the majority of the people are confused and frustrated by the seeming instability of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's government. Dirksen added that they need more information about the situation in Saigon.

Supports Court Hearing

Justice Official Reveals FBI Tapped Phone Line

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has sent an unprecedented memorandum to the Supreme Court admitting that Federal Bureau of Investigation agents secretly eavesdropped on conversations between a lawyer and his client — a former associate of Bobby Baker.

The client, Washington public relations man Fred B. Black Jr., later was convicted of income tax evasion. But in the memorandum, Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall said Black should be given a court hearing.

Marshall's memorandum to the high court, sent Tuesday, indicated that the FBI apparently acted on its own when it "installed a listening device" in Black's hotel suite in Washington three years ago.

The memorandum said that neither the Justice Department attorneys who prosecuted Black nor "any other attorney of the Department of Justice" — including Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach — knew about the electronic snooping.

Black now is fighting his 1964 tax conviction and has asked the Supreme Court for the second time to review his conviction. The court denied Black's first request for review May 2.

He and Baker, former Senate Democratic secretary who has been indicted on a number of federal charges, were associated in a Washington vending machine business.

In his memorandum, Marshall said the bugging, which took place between February and April 1963, "was unrelated to the tax evasion case."

But he added: "The listening device was in operation from approximately two months before until approximately one month after the evidence was presented to the grand jury and the indictment was returned.

"During that time the monitoring agents overheard, among other conversations, exchanges between petitioner and the attorney who was then representing him in connection with the tax evasion charges on which he has been convicted."

Marshall said although the Justice Department is convinced "the monitoring of conversations had no effect upon his conviction or the fairness of his trial, we have no doubt that in the circumstances (Black) is entitled to a judicial determination."

Marshall emphasized the entire case against Black was based on investigation by the IRS and not the FBI, but added that Black should be allowed to raise the question in U.S. District Court whether any other conversations overheard by the agents "furnished any leads or evidence in his case."

Scott Blasts Shapp About Peace Corps

HARRISBURG (AP) — U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott opened the 1966 gubernatorial campaign Tuesday by accusing Democratic gubernatorial nominee Milton Shapp of playing loose with the truth in claiming that he sold the late President John F. Kennedy on the idea of establishing a Peace Corps.

"... In 1961 when President Kennedy was still alive, Mr. Shapp did not dare take credit for having persuaded JFK to start the Peace Corps," Scott, a Republican, said at a news conference in Harrisburg.

"But today, when the late president is no longer with us to correct this fabrication, Mr. Shapp feels free to create this fiction, publish it in pamphlets and put it on television."

Shapp, in Florida to visit his ill mother, said Scott's charges were false, and accused the Senator of making an issue over semantics. Shapp told KYW radio that he never claimed to have originated the idea of the Peace Corps, but persuaded the Kennedy team to adopt it as one of its programs. He said he would answer the charges more fully at a news conference on Thursday.

They're (the Republicans) scared to death that we're going to beat them so they have to resort to mudslinging," commented Van Youngman, Shapp's executive assistant.

Scott, used an exerpt from a half-hour television campaign show in which Shapp said he first mentioned the proposal to Robert Kennedy "about the 22nd or 23rd of October, 1960."

Commented Scott:

"The principal thing wrong with this Hollywood extravaganza is that it is pure fiction. Not one word pertaining to the Peace Corps is true."

Scott submitted 11 exhibits to support his claim that Shapp was not the man who convinced

Coast Guard Reports No Trace Of 2 Rowers

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—A Coast Guard search has failed to find any trace of the rowboat "Puffin" and its two-man crew.

John Hoare, 29, and David Johnstone, 34, left Virginia Beach Saturday in the 15-foot craft to row the 3,000 miles to England.

On Monday, they were spotted 20 miles off the Virginia coast, about 100 miles behind schedule, and Tuesday a Navy pilot reported he saw Puffin about 12 miles east of Virginia Beach.

The Coast Guard search was called off at midnight, and a spokesman said it was doubtful that it would be resumed today. He said it was assumed that Hoare and Johnstone had headed back to shore and might already have landed.

Romney Sets 3rd Term Bid In Michigan

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Republican Gov. George Romney, frequently mentioned as a possible 1968 presidential contender, announced as expected today his candidacy for a third term.

The term would be four years under a new State Constitution which Romney helped write. Romney's first two terms were for two years each.

Romney has no announced GOP opposition.

Sources close to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller say that the New York Republican leader has made a firm commitment to back the Michigan governor for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

Political intimates said Rockefeller's private understanding with Romney went far beyond the limited indication of support he gave in a speech at Garden City, N.Y., Monday night.

Rockefller has turned over to the Romney camp his confidential files and lists of political and financial backers from the 1964 presidential effort. He also promised to use his own personal contacts in Romney's behalf, an Albany associate said.

6 Are Injured In Area Crash Of 4 Vehicles

2 Hospitalized As Result Of Mishaps On Hillcrest Rd.

Two area women were hospitalized and four others injured in a four - car accident on Route 45—the Hillcrest Rd.—a mile north of Route 7 Tuesday at 9:30 p. m.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the crash involved cars operated by Mrs. Betty Lou Carr, 31, of 1395 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville, Mrs. Florence E. Applegate, 59, of Lincoln Way, Lisbon R. D. 2, and James Robert Reed, 21, of 437 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, and a parked car owned by Dean DeLong of Wellsville R. D. 1.

Officers said Mrs. Applegate pulled from the east edge of the road onto Route 45 and headed south. She then struck the northbound car operated by Mrs. Carr in the right side.

Mrs. Applegate's car continued on and struck the parked car in the right rear side. The vehicle continued south in the northbound lane and collided head - on with the car driven by Reed. The impact drove the Reed car backwards and Mrs. Applegate's car came to rest against a guard rail.

Officers said Mrs. Applegate was cited for reckless operation. She was admitted to City Hospital, where she was in "fair" condition today with possible injuries of the neck, shoulders and chest.

Three passengers in Mrs. Applegate's car also were hurt. Mrs. Margaret Leggett, 36, of West Point was treated for a small cut of the right lower leg and her daughter, Barbara Leggett, 3, suffered brush burns of both legs, the face and right arm.

Mrs. Margaret Plunkett, 50, wife of William Plunkett of West Point, was admitted and was in

In College Planning

Fund Allocations Ruled Improper

LISBON — County commissioners have no legal authority to appropriate money for preparing official plans for community colleges.

Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe forwarded that opinion Tuesday to Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis of Columbiana County.

Saxbe said it is an established principle of law that county commissioners have only such powers as are conferred upon them by law. He said he was unable to find any provision in the statutes which directly, or by implication, attempts to grant authority to county commissioners to appropriate a sum of money for education or for preparing official plans for a community college.

APPARENTLY this means $3,000 and $2,000 appropriations made last year by the county commissioners were illegal since they went for educational purposes.

Commissioners asked the prosecutor for an opinion this spring when the question of legality was raised as they prepared to appropriate another $3,000 for preparing official plans for a college.

Unless the county is reimbursed for the $5,000, commissioners face a finding by a state examiner at some future audit.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, chairman of the college Board of Trustees, said the $5,000 was appropriated not for the trustees' use in making a college plan but to pay for a county educational needs survey ordered by the higher education committee of the County Regional Planning Commission. This was before commissioners designated a Community College District.

GOSNEY said such a survey is a requirement of any higher education plan submitted to the Ohio Board of Regents for approval. Other counties financed similar studies, he said.

Expenses of the college trustees' office in Lisbon and the salary of Dr. Richard E. Whalen, former college planning director for the county, were met by contributions, Gosney said.

The Board of Regents last Friday rejected the trustees' request for a college charter.

Report Raps State

Essex Agrees Ohio Lags In Public School Ranking

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The man who will soon direct Ohio's public school system agreed today with a report saying it compares poorly with those of other major states.

"Ohio has not been keeping pace (in education) with other industrial states for a good long time. . . at least for the last decade," Dr. Martin W. Essex, now superintendent of Akron schools, said.

Dr. Essex will take office July 1 as state superintendent of public instruction, succeeding Dr. E. E. Holt.

Tuesday, at a luncheon here, he heard a report prepared by a survey team of educators who appraised Ohio public schools and made recommendations for changes. The study was financed by several Ohio philanthropic organizations.

The crux of the findings: Spend more money.

"I hope the report will be studied widely in Ohio," said Essex, who added he was grateful the sponsoring organizations "recognize the plight of the schools in our state."

The report's recommendations

Viet Backer Gets Oregon Vote Victory

Miami Mayor Pulls Upset In Florida's Primary Tuesday

Robert B. Duncan, President Johnson's champion in an Oregon campaign focused on Viet Nam, captured that state's Democratic Senate nomination amid Republican talk of nationwide voter uneasiness about the Asian war.

In Duncan's runaway victory Tuesday over peace candidate Howard Morgan, advocates of the U.S. stance in South Viet Nam could find at least a partial answer to the Republican report.

Duncan, a two-term congressman, and Morgan, a former member of the Federal Power Commission, stood together on domestic matters. They argued only about Viet Nam. Morgan called U.S. involvement there a tragic error; Duncan said it is necessary.

Their clash echoed the debate that has raged in Congress and on campuses across the nation. In Oregon, for the first time, the voters judged the debaters.

With 1,437 of 2,946 Oregon precincts reporting, Duncan had 64 per cent of the votes, Morgan 33 per cent and a third candidate 3 per cent.

Voters rendered their judgments in primary elections in Florida, Oklahoma and Kentucky, too. The most startling decision in the balloting was Miami Mayor Robert King High's rematch triumph over Florida Gov. Haydon Burns.

High's upset climaxed a bitter runoff campaign which produced Burns charges that the short, red-haired mayor was the candidate of a Negro bloc, and a protege of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

High said he was campaigning for integrity in government, and accused Burns—who overwhelmed him two years ago — of cronyism, and patronage that cost millions of dollars.

Attacked By Vandals, Auto Becomes 'Ruin'

A motorist complained to police Tuesday his 1956 model four-door sedan literally was turned into a ruin when attacked by vandals on a Klondyke lot.

John Sanford of 401 Elizabeth St. told officers the damage took place while the auto was parked on a vacant lot near Harvey Ave. and Elizabeth St. between 6 p. m. Sunday and 10 a. m. Tuesday.

The vandals smashed out the windshield, the rear window and the windows in the right front, left rear and right rear, he said. For good maesure, all four tires were deflated and the radio antenna was torn off, he added.

Health Board Sets Aid To Rejected Draftees

The City Health Department said today it has joined with the State Health Department and the U. S. Public Health Service in a new national program to assist men rejected for medical reasons by Selective Service.

Under the program, a follow-up contact is made with the rejectee at his home to help him obtain the medical aid he needs. The Health Department emphasized that the followup is made only after the program has been explained to the man and he has requested the service.

Called a Health Referral Service, the ultimate aim of the new program is to obtain help for all medically - disqualified men who require it, the board said.

Vodrey Lists Formula For Street Costs

Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey today issued a formula which householders may use in determining their costs for participation in the city's annual summer low - cost street surfacing program.

The price for property-owners on either side of the street may be determined by multiplying the one-cent charge by the width of the street and then multiplying that figure again by the length of the stretch an individual owns, Vodrey explained.

For instance, a street 15 feet wide and 100 feet long could be improved with the low-cost surfacing for a fee of $15. The charge applies to property-owners on either side of the same stretch. Each would pay $15.

The city pays 50 per cent of the cost of each project, plus the cost of surfacing any intersections. The city's share is paid out of income tax revenues.

Vodrey said some petitions already are in circulation for the 1966 program. A tentative deadline of July 1 has been established for filing the petitions.

The director requested yesterday that neighborhood committees begin circulation of the petitions as soon as possible.

The city must know as soon as possible the total quantity of asphaltic material that will be required in order to draft specifications before issuing a call for contractors' bids, the director explained.

In addition to applying a new surface to streets where the work is petitioned, the city will put down additional coatings on some stretches surfaced in earlier projects. The new coatings on streets previously surfaced will be applied at no cost to the property-owners.

Spare The Endorsements

It is easy to imagine Michigan's Gov. George Romney and New York's Sen. Jacob K. Javits winced when New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller gave them his political blessing for 1968.

It wouldn't be dislike of Gov. Rockefeller but recognition of the political realities that all potential presidential candidates must cope with —especially Republicans.

The Republican party will not be of one mind in 1968. It never has been of one mind. Neither has the Democratic party. Traditionally, each major party contains within itself wider differences of opinion than the differences between the two parties.

The thing that makes it possible for them to ask for votes on a party basis is domination of their political spectrums by a dominant faction within the party.

Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal faction dominated the old-line Southern reactionaries and the diehard Northern conservatives. John F. Kennedy's New Frontier outshone all other Democratic factions. Lyndon B. Johnson's Great Society loomed larger than the old-line Southern segregationists.

In Republican ranks, Dwight D. Eisenhower's personal popularity turned the trick. Richard M. Nixon, whose personal popularity never loomed large as a political factor, was unable to repeat the Eisenhower success. Barry M. Goldwater presided over an election fiasco because under his leadership Republican ranks disintegrated into their component elements.

As unofficial spokesman for only one of the elements, Gov. Rockefeller's personal blessing has no broad significance for any 1968 hopeful. It could be harmful, on the other hand, because the 1968 candidate will have to piece together enough factions to dominate the party.

The losers will not surrender. They will not die off. They will not change their minds in Republican ranks any quicker than losers in Democratic ranks. But someone, somehow, sometime in some way will have to dominate the splinter factions by creating a new master faction inside the Republican party.

When the time comes, the genius who will do this should be spared the blessing of symbolic spokesmen for splinter groups within the party — Nelson Rockefeller, Richard Nixon, Dwight Eisenhower and all the other elder statesmen. They can only reveal differences and transfer to the object of their blessings the animosity directed against themselves.

Let's Prove It First

The five-man team of economists and political scientists whose report on Ohio public education includes an allegation of niggardliness in state spending should have thought twice before relying on dubious statistics about the spending rate.

What Ohioans would like to have is a thorough job of research on what actually is spent in Ohio's school districts—not the most affluent, not the least affluent, but median districts.

What Ohioans get, instead, is a shaky statistic supposed to prove their wealthy state is starving its public schools. This assuredly is not true. What the shaky statistic purports to show is Ohio's relative position in state support for public schools.

It does not show local support in the separate school districts. It shows neither the level nor the yield of local school levies. It does not show that the overwhelming bulk of local real estate tax revenue goes to schools. It does not show that real estate in an ordinary Ohio district is appraised higher than in districts elsewhere which may have higher tax rates.

The shaky statistic that purports to show Ohio is a pinch-penny state in support of public education bobs up so often it is an old friend, especially among school people. They take it to heart. They honestly believe public education in Ohio is being starved to death.

But the point cannot be proved unless someone proves that over-all expenditures divided by the total school population show Ohio children are actually worse off than their counterparts in other states.

Over-all Ohio expenditures would be hard to calculate, perhaps impossible. Meanwhile, it is easier to take funny figures on state school support literally.

Toughness In Viet

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The one hope for stability in South Viet Nam at this time seems to be iron - fisted toughness, not democracy, and it may long remain that way.

The American ideal of the good society in Viet Nam would be a democratic one. But events over the years — particularly recent events—throw doubt on the readiness of the Vietnamese for democracy. They never had it.

One government after another was swept out by plots, ambitions, and protests, especially by Buddhist leaders, until the present group of generals took over under Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.

He promised elections and a constitutional government within a year. This didn't satisfy the Buddhist leaders. In trying to throw him out, they revolted at Da Nang.

THIS REVOLT, judging from what happened, was poorly planned and badly organized. Although Buddhists make up 80 per cent of the population, in the showdown they lacked mass support. Ky used the army to crush the uprising.

Unrest continues in the northern city of Hue and, to some extent, among Buddhists in the capital of Saigon. But Ky, according to reports from Saigon, is confident he can squelch this kind of opposition.

Richard Critchfield of the Washington Evening Star, writing out of Viet Nam, has presented a disgusting picture of the Da Nang Buddhists who wanted a hand, and no doubt eventual control, in running the government.

He describes them as a bunch of callous, cold-blooded, merciless opportunists who exploited the dead and the wounded for their own ends. He writes of their "incredible cynicism toward human life."

His story — of how the Buddhists enticed newsmen into their pagoda and tried to use them as hostages against attack by Ky's troops —reveals how the Buddhist rebels lost their zeal for revolt under fire.

For days, he said, Buddhists had shot into neighborhood houses and "then collected wounded and killed and paraded them before the press as victims of government repression."

Yet, these are the same men who have been demanding constitutional government. Their performance was irresponsible and cruel. It is still not clear whether they are in league with the North Vietnamese Communists.

IF KY GOES through with his plans for a democratic government, the Buddhist leaders will want a large and no doubt dominant role in it. But it hardly seems possible after the disclosures at Da Nang that they want a democratic government or any kind of government—but a Buddhist dictatorship.

Therefore, it should not be surprising if Ky and the generals refuse to let the elections occur within a year or for some time afterward because the Buddhist leaders project a vision not of order but of anarchy.

One thing is sure: the U.S. war against the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Communists cannot continue if South Viet Nam disintegrates much further into the kind of brainless disorder the Buddhist leaders sought.

If there is a connection between the Buddhist leaders and the Communists it may begin to show up if Ky restores stability to South Viet Nam. So long as the Buddhists revolted, the Reds could hope for internal collapse.

That would have saved them a need for a total showdown with the United States. If there's no internal collapse, they will have to rely on war.

Good Old VLU

By Truman Twill

Many of us remember when spring fever used to strike in April and sometimes as early as March. Its victims would have regained their strength by the end of May.

It's different now.

I am waiting for an attack of spring fever that may not overtake me until sometime in June. A few years ago, it never happened until July.

People don't know as much about spring fever as they did when it was commonplace in springtime. They now are turning to artificial dope for their kicks, instead of relying on Vernal Lassitude Unlimited—VLU.

It was like being turned on with marijuana or LSD—a dreamy sense of floating away on a cloud. But there was nothing illegal or unhealthful about it; that was the difference.

Spring fever was understood by one and all. Allowances were made for it. They even had a cure for it—sassafrass tea. If that didn't work, they used sulphur and molasses. If that didn't work, they prescribed a couple hours in the back yard with a carpet beater.

Spring fever is associated in memory not only with carpet beaters but other housecleaning procedures. For many of us a whiff of Murphy's Oil Soap will bring on a psychosomatic attack of VLU.

Everybody used to know about such things.

But spring housecleaning is going out of fashion, like modesty. The idea now is to keep things neatened up as the calendar unfolds. There no longer is an abrupt, dramatic transition from winter to spring. Everything happens gradually.

This in itself may explain what happened to VLU. There is no special occasion for yawning, stretching and deciding to be carefree and uninhibited. Without the pungent odor of Murphy's Oil Soap and the sensuous undulations of paper cleaner, life never reaches a truly memorable peak of vernal harmony any more.

People do not know what it feels like to be devoid of a sense of responsibility—to want to do nothing but make beautiful music with the twittering birds and blend their thoughts with blossoms on trees and perfume-laden zephyrs fresh from Acadia.

They have forgotten how to saunter down tree-lined corridors of timelessness, at peace with their neighbors and the most distant stars.

They never have discovered the pure delight of looking on existence and finding it good, good, good — of succumbing to the magnetic spell of the eternally good earth. That was spring fever, the way it used to be—Vernal Lassitude Unlimited—good old VLU.

Fears Of Dock Strike Mount

By Victor Riesel

Though unreported "state-side," American construction wizards, despite the odds against them, have been turning Vietnamese sandy beaches into concrete two-freighter piers; stinking swamps into 10,000-foot aluminum mat runways, with parallel taxi strips and bushland into oil "tank farms."

Victor Riesel

Despite heat and malaria and Viet Cong hit-shoot-and-run tactics, whole countrysides have been transformed in 70 to 90 days by a construction combine known as the "RMK" group.

It has moved over $26 million worth of heavy construction equipment into the hell fronts.

It's imperative to have a steady flow of millions more each month—virtually all outward bound from U.S. Pacific ports to Viet Nam.

Now there is fear that this steady flow of machinery and supplies will be cut off by a union stoppage.

IN RECENT WEEKS the strike talk has come from 64-year-old Harry Bridges, caliph of the California-based International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU).

For a while the authorities, the Navy's Bureau of Yards and Docks which oversees the massive $150 million high-speed Vietnamese building program, and the State Department have hoped that Bridges' threats were just so much bargaining talk.

Suddenly last week the sanguineness ran cold.

At a series of secret joint conferences in the State Department Secretary Dean Rusk's labor specialists were told by their own waterfront contacts that Mr. Bridges and his militant union colleagues were "damned serious."

The advice was to start shifting cargo from West Coast ports to Gulf and Atlantic piers before the ILWU-Pacific Maritime Association contract expires at the end of June.

If Bridges blows the whistle, the ships of 65 U.S. and foreign owners will be paralyzed and the 15,000 shoreside men employed by some 50 stevedoring and warehouse companies will stay home.

And what better season is there for a stoppage?

AS THE INFORMATION funneled into the office of the always anonymous "Phil" Delaney, Secretary Rusk's labor specialist and coordinator, it became obvious in the last few days that "old Harry" was reverting to his more militant youth in what may be his "final go-round with the owners."

Mr. Bridges will be 65 in July, and another five- or six-year contract will push him past retirement age. So he is not likely to "go soft."

Mr. Bridges, whose union has strong contacts with militant transport labor organizations across the world, is asking for a bulky package of benefits indeed.

In wages alone, through a complex formula, the bid is for $22.50-a-week increase per man for each 40-hour, five-day week.

That's just the beginning.

There are demands for early retirement, a new vacation schedule, automation payments and fringes, which lift the hair of the shipowners as they examine and re-examine the union's billet-doux.

This comes atop the old contract which gave the employers the right to automate the docks and handle cargo pretty much as they wanted —in exchange for paying some $29 million into a special fund.

NOW THE EMPLOYERS are saying this was a one-shot contract. So both sides are holding steady.

What worries the Defense and State Departments is the impact of the stoppage on the vital, ultra-high speed construction in such areas as the tortured Da Nang sector—as well as in eight other vital areas of Viet Nam.

The RMK combine—Raymond Morris Knudsen-Brown Root Jones—now is spending about $20 million a month. The latest figures the classified boys will release here put the Vietnamese employes of the RMK drive at 40,000 men. They are being hired at the rate of 1,000 a week.

They've been doing Trojan work: In Da Nang alone they have built or are working on a 10,000-foot concrete asphalt runway, a tank farm with an offshore unleading fuel line, perimeter security locations, two deep-draft piers and a storage area. Still to be completed are cantonments for military personnel, munition and fuel storage areas and warehouses.

There also is the complex at Da Nang East across the Tourane River. This is the "Marble Mountain Air Facility."

CAM RANH BAY is being developed into a fully equipped major advanced-base-type deep-water port.

A few miles north of the port is the burgeoning Cam Ranh airfield—and so it goes in Chu Lai, Qui Nhon, Nha Trang, Bien Hoa, Can Tho and Pleiku. Historic and bloody names, those.

But if they are not to get bloodier and tragically historic, the flow of heavy equipment for modern warfare should not cease. That flow calls for at least $8 million worth of material a month and 32,000 tons of shipping and an equivalent amount of cement—equal to 32 LST loads.

Small wonder fear of a West Coast, Alaskan and Hawaiian dock strike haunts the Pentagon and "State."

Strange War

By David Lawrence

Strategy Minus The Military

The strangest thing about the Viet Nam War is that the strategy isn't being directed by military men. This may be one of the reasons why certain segments of the American people are somewhat confused, and perhaps it accounts for the variations from time to time in the public-opinion polls and surveys.

David Lawrence

One impression derived from news reports is that the military men in positions of leadership in Washington are somewhat frustrated by the restraints being constantly imposed by reason of "policy considerations."

The most enlightening comment on the whole situation has just come from Harold Brown, secretary of the U.S. Air Force, who was interviewed on NBC's Meet the Press last Sunday. His reluctance to answer categorically certain types of questions was meaningful in itself.

HE WAS ASKED if the United States turned loose its naval and air force power against North Vietnamese military targets, could this quickly change the situation of the war in South Viet Nam. The secretary replied:

"I would like to start out by explaining why we are in Viet Nam. We are not fighting in Viet Nam to overthrow the North Vietnamese government. We are not fighting in Viet Nam to assure a permanent alliance of the South Viet-permanent base rights in South Viet Nam.

"We are fighting in Viet Nam in order to assure the South Vietnamese people the possibility of a free government without being attacked, without their being attacked from outside.

"In so doing, we are using the minimum force available to attain those ends. We are trying to minimize our own casualties, the casualties of our allies. We are even trying to minimize the casualties of our adversaries and at the same time bring them to the conference table, which so far we have been unable to do.

"We are not looking for a wider war. We are not looking for a bigger war. We don't want to do anything that would bear with it a grave risk of increasing the scope of the conflict with all that that would mean in the way of additional U.S. efforts and additional U.S. casualties. . . .

"At the present the decision, which is a to expand the targets and the reason, I think, is very clear. It doesn't do very much good to . . . win one war and find yourself in a much bigger one."

THERE HAVE BEEN RUMORS that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have urged intensified bombing raids against all installations of military significance. Secretary Brown refused to discuss such reports.

The net result of the Air Force secretary's explanation is perhaps to leave the reader puzzled. When a government official talks in such guarded terms about the use of air power, it's quite evident that restrictions have been imposed and that the war is not being fought by military commanders but on the basis of "policy considerations."

There are always risks in enlarging a war, but military men answer that the risks are even greater if an impression of cravenness and irresoluteness is conveyed. Also, the casualties in ground warfare are increased when enemy supply lines are not disrupted or its bases destroyed.

So the United States is really not fighting the war with the maximum of its power but is trying to exert steady pressure on the North Vietnamese in the hope of a peace conference.

IN WASHINGTON, Sen Richard Russell, chairman of the Armed Services Committee, has said publicly that the United States either should plan to win the war or pull out. There has been a debate on what is meant by "winning the war," and it even has been argued that it doesn't matter whether the military forces of the nemy are beaten as long as they are "contained" or held in check.

Sooner or later, the administration will have to make a decision on whether it really is out to defeat the aggressor or merely means to hold the line indefinitely, while each year thousands of Americans are killed and wounded. The war could drag on for many years if it is not fought intensively.

Delay Sought On Minimum Wage Boosts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House wades into a stack of controversial amendments today as it moves toward expected passage of a bill to raise the federal minimum wage and broaden its coverage.

Supporters face a strenuous task in retaining the bill's full proposed new coverage of 7.2 million workers, including farm workers and employes of hotels, hospitals and restaurants.

They should have less difficulty in raising the present $1.25 an hour wage to $1.60, but a major effort is being planned to delay the effective date of the top rate from 1968, as proposed in the bill, to 1970.

During four hours of debate Tuesday there was widespread agreement that wages of the nation's lowest paid workers should be raised — at least to the $3,000-a-year regarded as the level of poverty in other federal programs. A wage of $1.60 would produce an annual income of $3,200.

It was not unanimous. Rep. Glenn Andrews, R-Ala., said the bill would create more poverty by forcing farms and small businesses to shut down because they can't pay higher wages.

There was evidence of bipartisan support for the main outlines of the measure, however. Rep. Alphonzo Bell, R-Calif., called for its passage intact, and Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Calif., said he wanted only one minor amendment. Both are members of the Education and Labor Committee which wrote the bill.

The proposal to delay the effective date of the $1.60 wage to 1970 is to be made by Rep. Thomas G. Morris, D-N.M. The bill provides for an increase to $1.40 next Feb. 1, and a stepup to $1.60 a year later.

Rep. John H. Dent, D-Pa., floor manager of the bill, is counting on the support of President Johnson to help defeat the Morris amendment. Johnson, in a talk to editors of labor publications Monday, endorsed the bill for the first time. He asked Congress for changes in the minimum wage law, but made no specific recommendations.

Other amendments that appear to have wide support would eliminate farm workers from coverage, exempt cannery workers from overtime, limit the size of retail establishments that would be covered, provide lower wages for teen-agers, and drop waiters and other tipped employes from the bill.

Mayor Obliges, Pulls Right Name In Prize Contest

ALPENA, Mich. (AP) — Mayor Walter Weinkauf was drawing a name from 3,000 entries in a contest Tuesday when a photographer looked up from his camera and said:

"See that you pull out a poor family with eight or nine kids."

Winkauf drew the name of Marie Deno.

Mrs. Deno not only is the mother of nine, but she is the wife of the man with the camera, Eugene (Skeets) Deno, general news editor of The Alpena News.

The prize: a free, five-minute shopping spree by the family in a supermarket.

Mrs. Deno quoted her husband as telling the mayor before the contest drawing, "We could clean the store out with my family. Why don't you pull out mine?"

TB-Hit Students Reported Better

DETROIT (AP) — Most of the 20 youngsters who contracted tuberculosis in their suburban nursery school last fall are back home.

Maybury branch of Detroit General Hospital reports all but five have left the sanitorium, and Dr. John Romanik said four of those are scheduled for release this week.

"The bulk of them went home since May 7," he said. "They are medically discharged with our approval. These children represent absolutely no danger to the community."

The first TB case at the nursery in Garden City was discovered last December.

In general, Dr. Romanik said, the children will not have to stay at home after their release. He said the children must nap daily and should not be allowed to become exhausted.

Most people look forward to the time when they can stop working and have time to do things they haven't been able to do before. It's called retirement, but in a real sense it's a beginning of what can be the best years of anyone's life. Making the most of retirement takes planning and at Crucible people are encouraged to do just that. Last week the first in a series of pre-retirement meetings was held for Midland salaried people. Outlined for employes was what they can expect from the company at retirement age. They were advised of the avenues available to them—social security, insurance, investments—sources of added retirement income. Concern for its people during employment or retirement is evidence of Crucible's recognition of their invaluable contribution to everyone's success.

U.S. Orbits Explorer In Space Study

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Explorer 32, America's newest orbiting chemical laboratory, bounded into space today to begin mapping unchartered regions of earth's upper atmosphere.

The 492-pound Explorer, the size and shape of a shiny beachball, blasted off at 10 a.m. (EDT) on the tip of a sleek Delta rocket. Its launch sounded the opening gun for one of the busiest seven-day launch schedules in Cape Kennedy history.

Explorer's booster rocket — aimed for an egg-shaped orbit ranging from 170 to 750 miles above the earth.

"We appear to have a normal flight," a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said after the spacecraft achieved orbit.

The $1.5-million satellite, three feet in diameter, was built to beam back data on the concentration and distribution of charged hydrogen, helium, nitrogen and oxygen atoms located in the shiny Explorer's orbital path.

Explorer also was designed to study short-term disturbances in the upper atmosphere caused by solar storms, which send charged particles streaking from the sun and interrupt short-wave radio communications that use earth's ionosphere

Ever baste broiled chicken with a mixture of olive oil and lemon juice? Good!

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—My gravy always tastes good enough, but it has an unappetizing color. What can you suggest?

A.—You can give your gravy more eye appeal by adding left-over coffee to it, stirring in a teaspoonful of powdered instant coffee. This darkens the gravy nicely, without affecting its taste.

Q. — How can I extract more juice from a lemon?

A. — Try putting the lemon under the hot - water faucet before slicing.

People In News

NEW YORK (AP) — A model, who last month was mauled by a lion while posing with the animal, posed again Tuesday — alone.

Nell Theobald, 21, sat in a wheelchair as she left a hospital where she underwent plastic surgery on her left leg.

The lion attacked Miss Theobald April 8 during a publicity stunt at the National Auto Show.

She told newsmen she hopes to return to modeling and "start living again."

NEW YORK (AP) — Sophia Loren may be a fiery actress on the screen and a sex symbol in the minds of millions, but she is "a very simple Neapolitan girl"

That's what she told report Tuesday when she arrived to attend a dinner at the Museum of Modern Art, where she is featured in an exhibition of photographs.

When a reporter suggested that she might be an unusually pretty Neapolitan girl, she offered a reply that may start a bachelors stampede to Italy.

"Thank you," she said. "But maybe you have never been in Naples."

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Actor Paul Newman and an electrician saved producer-director Martin Ritt from possible serious injury Tuesday on a nearby movie location.

During shooting of the film "Hombre," a camera dolly buckled, throwing Ritt off the dolly.

An electrician caught Ritt in his arms and broke his fall while Newman diverted a 300-pound lamp that officials said would have struck Ritt.

The director suffered a slightly wrenched back. Newman suffered scratches and splinters in his hand.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor John V. Lindsay has found a way to rise above New York City's transportation problems, which have included subway, bus and taxi strikes since he took office Jan. 1.

He is going to fly to and from his City Hall office and Gracie Mansion, the mayor's official residence.

A helicopter pad is being built just off the grounds of the mansion above the East River and should be finished within a month.

Ohio Medical Unit Postpones Action On Patient Pay Plan

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Mahoning County Medical Society resolution calling for medical care will not be considered at the Ohio State Medical Association's annual convention here.

The resolution was presented Tuesday night but failed to win approval for consideration from two thirds of the House of Delegates of the OSMA. It called for the patient to pay his doctor rather than having payment come from insurance companies or from Medicare coverage when it becomes abailable.

The OSMA constitution requires that resolutions must be presented 60 days prior to the annual convention or must win approval from two-thirds of the House of Delegates in order to be considered at the convention.

An association spokesman said the Mahoning County resolution was not presented within the 60-day period and "became a dead issue" when it failed to get the required number of votes in the House of Delegates.

Some of the 40 resolutions that will be acted on Friday deal with the same subject as the Mahoning County resolution, although different terminology is used, the spokesman said.

Dr. Henry A. Crawford, association president, announced a "declaration of independence" for Ohio medicine as the convention opened Tuesday night.

Included was a statement of policy from the OSMA to eliminate the government or any third party from the financial arrangement between th doctor and his patient.

It was recommended that the policy apply now and when Medicare becomes effective in July.

If the policy is generally adopted, it would mean that the patient would have to collect his insurance and pay the various physicians who treat him in the hospital or out.

By The Associated Press

The Ohio traffic death list numbers among its latest victims a young collegian injured during Sunday's rash of motorcycle and motorbike fatalities.

The dead:

Roger Kelly, 18, Louisville, Stark County.

Miss Judy Fitzgerald, 21, Lorain.

Kelly's auto collided head-on Tuesday with a tractor-trailer rig on U. S. 62 west of Alliance.

Miss Fitzgerald died in a Columbus hospital Tuesday night of injuries received when the motorcycle she was riding crashed Sunday on a Delaware County road north of Westerville, where she was an Otterbein College senior. Joseph Conklin, 22, of near Westerville, driving the 'cycle, died Sunday as a result of the accident.

Wreckage Found Off Missing Ship

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—Debris continued to wash ashore today from the collier Kaitawa, missing since Monday night, but none of the ship's 29 crewmen have been found.

Search parties on New Zealand's northernmost shore have recovered a lifeboat, two rudders, a partly inflated life raft and many life jackets. The ship's other life raft was missing, and air and sea rescuers pressed their search for it in hope of finding survivors.

The Kaitawa sent a distress signal Monday night during a gale. The 2,500-ton British ship was believed to have capsized after smashing up on the Pandora Banks, 10 miles off the coast.

If you have a cup of white wine left from a bottle that has been served at a meal, you can use the wine (instead of 1 cup of the water called for) in making up a small package (four-servings size) of flavored gelatin.

Red Sox Batter Twins In Streak

Associated Press Sports Writer

"Everything is perfect—good defense, good hitting and good pitching."

Sounds like the manager of one of baseball's upper-echelon teams, right?

Actually, those are the words of Billy Herman, whose Boston Red Sox are only 1½ games and four days removed from the American League cellar.

But Herman's Red Sox are streaking. They stormed to their sixth straight victory Tuesday night, crushing the Minnesota Twins 11-2 with a 16-hit barrage that included homers by Carl Yastrzemski, Jim Gosger and Tony Conigliaro, plus four doubles.

In addition to the lusty hitting, Boston had the good pitching, by Jose Santiago and Dick Radatz, and the good defense, a zero in the error column.

At the other end of the ladder, front-running Cleveland and second-place Detroit split a doubleheader Tuesday night. The Tigers won the opener 7-6 on Don Wert's eighth-inning single, while the Indians took the second game 2-0 as Luis Tiant pitched his fourth shutout of the year.

Also in the AL—California beat the Yankees 4-2 with a four-run fifth inning, Baltimore downed the Chicago White Sox 6-4 behind the key hitting of Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell, and Don Lock's two-run pinch homer with two out in the bottom of the ninth lifted Washington over the Athletics 2-1.

Tiant, whose four victories have all been shutouts, blanked the Tigers on four hits in the second game at Detroit. Chuck Hinton singled across an unearned run against loser Hank Aguirre in the fifth and Leon Wagner homered for Cleveland's second run in the eighth.

The Tigers, down 5-0 in the opener, came back and eventually settled it in the eighth when Wert singled in Ray Oyler. Norm Cash hit two homers for Detroit and Jim Northrup one. Rocky Colavito, Duke Sims and Fred Whitfield homered for Cleveland.

Joe Adcock's bases-loaded double climaxed the Angels' winning rally against the Yanks. Trailing 2-0 going into the fifth, California got its four runs off rookie reliever Dooley Womack on a walk, Womack's error, Willie Smith's pinch double, a fielder's choice and Adcock's two-run hit.

Brooks Robinson drove in three runs with a homer and a single, while Powell's single sent across Baltimore's clinching run against the drooping White Sox, who've lost eight of their last nine.

Lock pulled it out for the Senators with his clutch homer off Kansas City reliever John Wyatt.

Washington, limited to four hits by Chuck Dobson and Wyatt through eight innings, got a life when Dick Nen led off the last of the ninth with a walk. Wyatt struck out the next two Senators, but Lock then banged his homer into the bullpen in left field.

Salem Takes 2nd Victory

Salem recorded its second victory of the young season in the Tri-State Colt League Tuesday, defeating Central Service, 3-0, behind the four-hit pitching of Ciotti.

The victors pushed across one run in the first and two in the fifth.

Ciotti displayed sharp control, walking only one. He struck out six.

Jim Musuraca of Central Service also gave up only four hits, but fell victim to his own wildness — he walked 8 — and loose play as three errors were committed by his mates. Musuraca struck out eight.

Arrington led the losers' attack with two for three.

Christofanis, Altomare, Papic and Tinsley each hit safely for the winners.

Pittsburgh Bows In 5-2 Game

By DICK COUCH

Mr. Clutch has shifted gears again and the Los Angeles Dodgers are driving.

Ron Fairly, the Dodgers' unsung delivery man, rapped an eighth inning home run Tuesday night that made the difference in a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia, the fifth victory in the last six games for the world champions.

Fairly has hit four of his five 1966 homers in his last five games, helping the Dodgers stay within range of first-place San Francisco in the National League race.

Three weeks ago, however, the versatile red-head was struggling to brake a batting skid while the Dodgers, after dropping three straight to the Giants, were at a standstill.

Fairly, a .270 lifetime hitter, had gone 4-for-36 and was hitting a miserable .203.

Since then, he's rolled at a .400 clip, lifting his average to .290, and driven in 11 runs for a team-leading total of 20. The 27-year-old outfielder paced the club with 70 RBI last season and hit a solid .274.

Tuesday night's homer sent LA in front 3-1 but turned out to be the winning blow when the Phils scored in the ninth against Ron Perranoski. Perranoski, who came on for winner Don Sutton in the eighth, had not allowed a run in his previous 11 appearances.

Elsewhere, the Giants whipped Pittsburgh 5-2, Cincinnati blasted Atlanta 8-2, Houston beat New York 5-3 and Chicago blanked St. Louis 2-0.

A seventh-inning single by pitcher Gaylord Perry touched off the Giants' winning three-run rally against Pittsburgh. Tom Haller singled in the first run, Willie Mays delivered the second with a sacrifice fly and Willie McCovey capped the rally with his fifth homer. Mays' RBI was his first since May 13.

The Reds struck for seven runs in the sixth inning and put away Atlanta behind the six-hit pitching of winner Joey Jay, 5-2, and Bill McCool.

Tommy Helms, who cracked four hits for the night, triggered the big inning with a single and finished it off with a run-scoring single. Don Pavletich singled in two runs and John Edwards doubled across two more as the Reds sent 11 men to the plate and collected half of their 16 hits in the sixth.

The Astros scored four runs in the first inning — three on Jim Gentile's bases-loaded double — and held off the Mets on Claude Raymond's one-hit relief pitching over the last 5 1-3 innings. Rusty Staub knocked in the other Houston runs with a double and single.

Glenn Beckert doubled in the sixth inning at St. Louis, and scored on Ernie Banks' sacrifice fly, then drove in the Cubs' second run with a seventh inning single.

Ted Abernathy bailed Bill Hands out of a ninth inning jam, preserving the rookie's fourth victory.

Peden, South Side Ace, Will Attend Nebraska

Ken Peden, South Side High School's versatile basketball center, has signed a full grant-in-aid scholarship, valued at $7,200, with the University of Nebraska.

Nebraska's head basketball coach, Joe Cipriano, announced the signing of the Rams' second-highest point producer Tuesday.

Peden, 6-6, averaged 23 points a game and was voted to the WPIAL Section 22B all-conference team last season. He set a new school record with a 36-point total in one game.

Peden, who also ranks in the top 20 of his graduating class, won two letters in basketball and is second on the all-time scoring list with a career total of 857 points.

The outstanding cager also starred in baseball for the Rams as an outfielder. He earned three varsity letters in baseball and has a career batting average of .350.

Cipriano was elated with the signing of Peden, and said, "He definitely will fit well into our style at Nebraska and will strengthen our program."

George Zanic, cage mentor at South Side, feels Peden made a wise choice. "Nebraska has developed into a basketball power and I am sure Ken will see a lot of action. He is young and still growing and has the potential of being a great player."

Spring Sports 'Carnival' To Get Under Way Friday

By HAL PARIS
AP Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The annual high school spring sports spectacular comes up this weekend with championships at stake in track and field, baseball, tennis and golf.

The four-ply extravaganza gets under way Friday with semi-final activity in baseball, tennis and golf.

An estimated 700 athletes will vie for honors in the 15-event track meet Saturday at Ohio Stadium.

New champions are assured in both tennis and baseball but defending titlists get a crack at another crown in golf and track.

Cleveland Glenville, the Class AA king in track last year, is a threat again but city rival East Tech is the choice to cop the large school honors.

East Tech, winner of a record 13 state track titles, gained nine qualifying spots in last week's regionals, plus the Scarabs' 880 and mile relay teams.

Glenville qualified seven individuals plus its 880-relay combo and should be in contention.

Batavia, runnerup in Class A the last two years, is a strong favorite to take it all, qualifying six individuals and its mile relay team. Batavia also relies on Don Ogletree, the 440 winner a year ago and a threat in the long jump.

Other A champs returning include Dale Walker of Bellbrook, the state recordholder in the high jump with a 6-foot-5 performance and Tom Spitler of Genoa in the shot while AA victor Solomon Espie of Columbus East is back in the 100.

According to Ohio Track and Field, Walker high jumped 6-8 in the Dayton regional, one of the top Class A efforts of the season.

Another challenger in AA is Dayton Dunbar with seven individuals and its mile relay team. Dunbar finished second last year and won titles in 1963 and '64.

In golf, medalist Robert (Yank) Heisler of Ravenna returns, as do such standouts as Phil Alkire of Washington Court House, Tom Norris of Findlay and Ralph Colla of Youngstown Cardinal Mooney. Upper Arlington's strong links team could repeat its 1965 pennant.

Tennis competition appears wide open with last year's singles king, Chuck Hawley of Cincinnati Princeton and Upper Arlington's doubles duo all gone.

In baseball, Kettering Fairmont West opposes Toledo Waite and West Holmes goes against Tallmadge in a pair of 1:30 p.m. games Friday.

The Class A contests at 10 a.m. pit Deshler against Northwestern (Wayne) and Lucasville Valley against Carlisle.

Deshler lost in quarter-final action last year while Lucasville bowed in the finale to Versailles, the champion. The defending king in AA, Shaker Heights, did not make it back.

Vicar Hits Spongers Who Deserted Turpin

LEAMINGTON SPA, England (AP) — A Church of England vicar denounced Tuesday the spongers who deserted Randy Turpin, the former world middleweight champion, when his fame faded.

Thousands of mourners turned out to give a final farewell to the boxer as he was buried in a Leamington Spa cemetery.

Turpin, 38, was found shot with a gun beside him a week ago. He died virtually penniless.

New Yorker Has Golf Lead

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — The worm may have turned Tuesday for John Maurycy, a New York golfer who is a first year member of the PGA tour.

The 28-year-old Schenectady linkster, who plays out of Smithtown on Long Island, paced the qualifying for the $57,000 Oklahoma City Open with a par 71.

Maurycy was trailed by Dale Douglass of Oklahoma City and Sonny Methvin, an ex-Louisiana State star, who had 72s.

Maurycy has played in fewer than a dozen PGA tournaments and is in his sixth year as a professional.

"I didn't hit any good or bad shots today, just mediocre ones," Maurycy said.

He could be forgiven for his lack of optimism since he has not made the cut in any tournament thus far.

A field of 66 battled for 58 places in the tourney, which opens Thursday. Eighty-eight members of the 144 man field were exempt from qualifying.

Pro-amateur play today takes up the slack prior to the start of the tournament. Pros will be shooting for $3,500 at the Quail Creek Country Club.

Among the top-name players in the 72-hole meet are Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Jack Rule Jr., the defending champion. Gene Littler withdrew because of a throat infection.

Club At Beaver Local Discusses Activities

A discussion on ways of interesting others in club activities was held during a meeting of the Beaver Local Boosters Club Tuesday night.

James Burcham reported on plans for the spring fair this weekend.

Fifteen attended. Richard Downard, vice president, conducted business.

Donald Ross, football coach, will show films taken during the last season at the June 14 meeting. Mrs. Patsy Havis served refreshments.

The first Army - Navy football game was played in 1890. Navy won, 24-0.

Crowd Welcomes Clay On His Egyptian Tour

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Cassius Clay, who made a last minute decision against returning to the United States, began a five-day tour of Egypt today.

"Here I feel at home, here among my Moslem brothers," Clay told a huge, wildly enthusiastic crowd that turned out to meet him in the early morning hours at Cairo's Tarmac Airport.

Clay is a convert to the Black Muslims, which adheres to the Islamic religion, and prefers his Black Muslim name of Muhammad Ali. He accepted the invitation from Egypt's United Arab Republic Higher Council for Islamic Affairs.

The invitation and acceptance came only a few hours before Clay was to board an airliner for his return to the United States after the successful defense of his world heavyweight championship against Henry Cooper in London last Saturday.

Clay's immediate plans are for a rest and a visit to several points of interest, including the Aswan High Dam.

His more long-range plans may include Karl Mildenberger, the European champion from West Germany.

He dropped a couple of hints at the London airport that Mildenberger may be his next opponent, and stopped off in Frankfurt en route to Cairo and had an airport meeting with the handsome, dark-haired German.

Truck Firm Receives $9,500 Court Verdict

LISBON — A Columbiana County Common Pleas Court jury returned a $9,500 verdict Tuesday for B. & P. Motor Express, Inc., of Pittsburgh for damages to a tractor - trailer unit and cargo.

The damages were assessed against Mrs. Violet W. Pierce of Bradenton, Fla., whose husband, Howard S. Pierce, was killed in a car -truck collision May 19, 1964, at the intersection of Routes 62 and 44 in Stark County. The Pierces lived near Hanoverton at the time.

B. & P. claimed Pierce was driving on 44 and pulled onto the 62 thoroughfare in front of its truck. The firm asked damages of $13,522. Judge Joel H. Sharp presided for the five-day trial.

Jim Gentile batted in eight runs in the first and second innings while playing with Baltimore in 1961.

Split Remains In AAU And NCAA Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peace apparently is going to be hard to come by in the sports war between the Amateur Athletic Union and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Hearings before a five-man arbitration board—the fifth since the panel was named by Vice President Hubert Humphrey last January—were recessed here Tuesday night without agreement on salient issues.

More talks were set for June 15-16 in New York and indications were that the rival factions remain far apart.

"This could go on for months and months—I don't know when it could be settled," a spokesman for the NCAA said.

"Everybody appears confused—it's a mystery to some of us," added an AAU official.

The disputing parties are committed to silence until the panel has had a chance to do its job but, speaking anonymously in the hotel lobbies and at lunch tables, delegates whisper of "delaying tactics" and "evasion of issues" on the part of the rival groups.

Chairman Theodore W. Kheel, well-known New York labor mediator, and the other four members of his panel appeared optimistic until a proposal offered the two sides Tuesday encountered opposition.

The plan, details of which weren't announced, was presented to the combined AAU-NCAA session. Then each group was allowed to caucus and then return to the conference room to present its views separately.

Both sides objected to some part of the proposal.

Rail Directors Name Succesor For Tuohy

CLEVELAND (AP) — Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway and the affiliated Baltimore and Ohio Railroad elected Gregory S. DeVine chief executive officer of the two lines Tuesday to succeed the late Walter J. Tuohy.

Tuohy died May 12 several hours after C & O stockholders approved a merger with the Norfolk & Western Railroad. He suffered a heart attack.

More Golfers Roll Ahead In 'Open' Action

By The Associated Press

Big Bill Collins of Purchase, N.Y., the club pro at Brae Burn Country Club, shot a solid, three-under-par 139 in local qualifying for the U. S. Open Golf Tournament — but he isn't at all sure he'll try the big test in San Francisco.

Collins, a 6-foot-3, 215-pounder, was five strokes better than the No. 2 man in the qualifying in New York's suburban Westchester County Tuesday, but he was far from satisfied.

"I'm not doing anything real well," he said. "If I'm not playing any better than this, I'm certainly not going to tee it up on a course as tough as Olympic Club.

He, and all the other local qualifiers, still have one more major hurdle to clear, however, before reaching the finals at San Francisco's Olympic Club June 16-19.

Two days of local qualifying rounds ended Tuesday with 70 more pros and amateurs joining the 455 who qualified Monday. These survivors of an original field of 2,437 now go into sectional qualifying, either June 6 or 7, where the field will be trimmed to 123. All qualifying is over 36 holes.

They join 28 players — including most of the top names on the pro tour — who are exempt from all qualifying for one reason or another. That final field of 151 will compete at San Francisco.

Among those exempt from all qualifying are defending Open champion Gary Player, Masters champ Jack Nicklaus, British Open champion Peter Thomson, Amateur titlist Bob Murphy, the 15 leading scorers in last year's Open and the 15 leading money winners.

Ben Hogan has received a special invitation and is exempt.

A field of 48 others were exempt from local qualifying, but must play in sectional tournaments.

The final local qualifying was held Tuesday at Westchester, Long Island, Atlanta, Houston and San Francisco. Qualifying rounds in 57 other locations were held Monday.

Club pro Roane Puett of Austin, Tex., had the best round of them all Tuesday, a six-under-par 138, leading the seven qualifiers at Houston.

Other leaders — all with scores of 143 — included Jim Wright and Tom Nieporte, topping a field of 15 on Long Island, Hugh Royer Jr., Pine Mountain, Ga., leading a field of nine at Atlanta, and Dave Cogdell of Palo Alto, Calif., who topped a field of 20 at San Francisco.

Probably the most prominent casualty was Canadian Al Johnston, a one-time tour regular and now an assistant at Westchester Country Club.

Johnston was forced to withdraw after 18 holes because of a bad back.

Candidates for admission to the U.S. Naval Academy must be male citizens of the United States, at least 17 years of age but not past their 22nd birthday as of July 1 of the year of admission. They may not be married, nor may they ever have been married.

2 'Twin Bills' To Be Offered At Waterford

Waterford Park will present the first of two doubleheader racing cards Saturday when 10 races will be run during the afternoon, starting at 2, and eight at night, with a 7:15 post time.

Only one admission is required for the entire card of 18 races.

Another twin bill will be offered Monday, Memorial Day, with post times and policies prevailing for the entire card as for Saturday.

Jockey Floyd Green, perennial leader at Waterford and winner of more than 100 races annually for many years, is back in the saddle after suffering injuries in a spill about a month ago.

Green's first mount, Wellington Whiz, owned and trained by veteran Jack Wilson, finished second in a driving stretch duel with E. Rinaldi in the featured eighth race on Saturday.

Riessen Sidelined After Tumble On Grass

By HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS (AP) — Drizzling rain wet grass and bad light left Marty Riessen on the sidelines and the schedule in a jumble today going into the second day of play in the French International Tennis Championships.

Riessen, of Evanston, Ill., took a tumble on slippery grass in the first game of his first-round match with Alan Stone of Australia Tuesday and was carted off the court on a stretcher.

He was rushed to a hospital in extreme pain, but X rays showed there was no fracture.

"It's only a sprain and he should be playing again within a week," said Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., the acting team manager.

Riessen, ranked eighth in the United States but unseeded in this tourney, one of the world's four top amateur tournaments, had to forfeit the match, however.

The rest of the United States' leading players, and all seeded players, advanced. At least, those advanced who got to play.

Cliff Richey, Dallas, the No. 7 seed here didn't get to play, a victim of slow play and bad light.

Roy Emerson of Australia, the No. 2 seed but generally expected to win it all, had his match interrupted by darkness. A number of other matches were interrupted and several weren't started.

That left the schedule in a muddle. Several players have yet to play their first match. Some have completed the second round. Only a handful of women played in the opening day, but had a full slate set today.

Margaret Smith of Australia, the beaten finalist last year and No. 1 seed this year, went against Maria Solsona of Spain in a second round match.

Nancy Richey of Dallas, the United States' top-ranked woman, played Maria Terese Quadro of Spain in the first round.

Cliff Richey wnet against Graham Stillwell of Britain in their delayed first-round match.

In some of the other highlights, Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif., the United States' No. 1 and sixth-seeded, played Gerard Pilet of France and Clark Graebner, Beachwood, Ohio, faced Daniel Contet of France, both in second-round matches.

Ralston eliminated Bernard Paul of France 8-6, 6-3, 6-4 and Brabner stopped Petra Marmureanu of Romania 6-2, 6-3, 6-4 in first-round play Tuesday.

Emerson took the first set 6-3 and was 7-all with Bernard Boutboul of France when their match was halted by darkness.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 17-year-old girl with a serious problem. Several months ago my father was killed in an automobile accident. My mother was injured in the same accident but not seriously.

The driver of the other car was a young man 21 years of age. He was charged with involuntary manslaughter. The court proceedings lasted a long time and I got to know the boy very well. When the verdict—not guilty—was handed down I was terribly happy because I had become very fond of him.

My mother insists he was guilty regardless of the verdict. She says he was speeding and that he lied on the stand. She hates the sight of him and I wouldn't think of telling her that I have been seeing him secretly.

Please tell me what to do. This boy could be the big love of my life.—ODETTA.

Dear Odetta: There are plenty of boys around without picking the one who killed your father—even if it was an accident.

This guy sounds like bad news in spades. Forget him. Your mother has had enough heartache.

Lucky Wife

Dear Ann: My problem is not important but it bothers me. Whenever we have guests for dinner my husband compliments me on the food in the presence of the guests. I think this puts the guests on the spot. They think they must say something nice about my cooking and it makes me uncomfortable.

My husband often compliments me when there are no guests present but of course they don't know this. Should I ask him to please stop praising the food when company is around?—PROCEDURE IN YONKERS.

Dear Yonkers: Your husband sounds like a living doll. Don't put a damper on his compliments either in private or in the presence of others. Your guests probably think he is a sweet, adorable, thoughtful guy and that you are a lucky girl.

Nosy Neighbor

Dear Ann: My husband never needs to worry about my having a lover. The woman next door to me wouldn't let me get away with a thing.

Every time a strange car drives up to our house the neighbor woman comes right over. By strange car I mean any car that isn't ours. She is so fast on her feet that often she beats the guests to our door.

I don't mean to be petty, Ann, but it is very annoying because the woman includes herself every time we have company. We own our home and don't want to sell, although I actually have considered doing so to get rid of this pest. Please tell me what to do—LOVE THY WHAT?

Dear Love: How did the pest get so chummy? Overnight it didn't happen.

The only way to free yourself is to tell her that you are spending too much time in one another's home and that from now on it's going to be on an invitation only basis. It could be that she will stop speaking to you altogether. And wouldn't that be nice?

Confidentially

TO DOESN'T KNOW I EXIST: He knows you exist but he is not interested. Leave him alone. Boys actually enjoy pursuing girls. It makes them feel masculine. When you deprive them of the pleasure they resent it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DETROIT (AP)—Henry Ford II today confirmed reports that Lincoln-Mercury Division will market a new specialty car, the Cougar, in its 1967 line.

Ford and Arjay Miller, Ford president, disclosed details of the plan.

They said the Cougar "will fill a separate niche in the specialty car market" and added, "it follows the specialty car theme of the Thunderbird and Mustang fitting into a large market between them."

Ford said the new car "will offer more flair and sophistication than the present Mustang . . . it will be about nine inches longer and three inches wider and will be more roomy, more luxurious and will sell for more money."

Oxford Girls Warned On Short Skirt Wear

OXFORD, England (AP) — The girls at Oxford have been ordered not to wear the currently fashionable short, short skirts under their academic growns during examinations.

Said Dean Mary Proudfoot of Somerville, the women's colleges:

Men and women undergraduates take their examinations together.

Seal Affixed On $306,000 In City Bonds

Mayor George E. Willshaw today affixed the city's official seal to municipal bonds valued at $306,000, preparing to turn them over Friday to a Cleveland investment house which purchased the issue in competitive bidding on May 2.

But the impressive - looking securities are valueless until they are delivered to Prescott and Co. by the mayor and Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger. When they turn over the bonds to the Cleveland concern, the mayor and auditor will affix their signatures at the bottom, thus validating the securities.

The bonds are not signed until the moment of delivery in order that they will be of no value if lost or stolen before they are received by the investment house.

"I never saw so much money in my life," Willshaw commented this morning as he affixed the seal to the bottom of each bond, then handed it to Zollinger. Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper also was present. Except for a few, each bond has a face value of $5,000.

The city sold the bonds as the last step in the local financing of the rebuilding of outer St. Clair Ave.

The principal amount represents approximately $204,000 as the city's share of the $850,000 project while about $102,000 represents special assessments against owners of abutting property which still are outstanding.

The property - owner's share was $143,000 in all, but $41,000 was paid at Zollinger's office in cash shortly after Council enacted the assessing ordinance. The balance was certified to County Auditor Kenneth Bell at Lisbon for collection on the tax duplicate, plus interest.

As the special assessments are paid, the funds will be used to help retire the bond issue. The last of the 4 per cent bonds will mature on Dec. 1, 1976.

Officers Cite Bus Driver In 2 Way Crash

A bus driver was cited by police following a collision with a car Tuesday at 3:36 p. m. at Smith St. and Lincoln Ave.

The mishap involved a 1958 sedan driven by Terrence C. Pack, 17, of 2133 Michigan Ave. and a 1954 model bus owned by the City Transit Co. of Pennsylvania Ave. and operated by Ollie O. Monroe, 42, of 2001 Michigan Ave., officers said.

Monroe was cited under a section of the City Code which forbids making a change in a vehicle's course without ascertaining it can be done with safety.

Pack told police he was halted on Smith St. at Lincoln Ave. when his car was hit by the bus. Monroe reported he was attempting to make a left turn off Lincoln Ave. onto Smith St. when the bus hit the car.

Monroe was fined $15 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chortoff when he pleaded guilty to the traffic charge. Patrolman Paul C. Blevins, who cited Monroe, explained the circumstances to the court.

Another collision Tuesday on Market St. 15 feet north of 4th St. damaged a 1959 sedan driven by Ray Glendenning, 17, of Shadyside Ave. and a parked 1962 sedan owned by Dewey L. Morris of 121 W. 3rd St., police reported.

Glendenning said he was making a turn onto Market from 4th St. when an oncoming car pulled too far into the intersection before halting. When he saw he could not make the turn, he applied the brakes, causing his auto to hit the Morris car, he reported. There was damage to the right front of the Glendenning car and the left rear of the Morris auto.

A hit-skip collision Tuesday on W. 5th St. damaged a 1961 model compact owned by Robert Beck of 1706 Allison St., officers said. The left front door and fender of the auto were damaged while it was parked between 6:30 a. m. and 3:25 p. m., officers said.

Fire Chases 350 Girls At Kent Campus

KENT, Ohio (AP) — A flash fire sent more than 350 girls scuttling from their beds when flames broke out in a girls' dormitory at Kent State University early today.

University officials said an orderly evacuation from the $1.1 million Verder Hall prevented any injury to its 367 occupants, including three counselors.

Dorothy Wagner, 19, of Cleveland was studying in the second floor lounge of the residence hall when she saw "red flames and huge clouds of black smoke" outside the window.

She immediatedly sounded the alarm. The building was emptied within five minutes, a university spokesman said.

The fire is believed to have started somewhere in or around the main lounge and recreation area on the first floor, the spokesman added. Exact cause was not determined.

The girls were taken to Terrace Hall located nearby and housed for the night.

Emil Berg, business manager, estimated damage to the building and contents at $50,000 to $100,000. University officials are making arrangements to house the girls in different quarters for the rest of the term.

Kent City Fire Chief Fred J. Miller said the fire was brought under control about one-half hour after firemen arrived at the scene.

Midnight Session Held

Appropriation Bill OK'd By Pennsylvania House

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House, meeting in its third post-midnight session since April 27, passed a $425,000 deficiency appropriation bill early today and sent it to the Senate for concurrence in amendments.

The vote was 197-3.

The Senate was scheduled to convene later to act on the House amendments, which added $189,500 to the $235,500 originally contained in the bill.

The money would finance expenditures in the executive and legislative branches of government above the amounts appropriated last year.

The bill, as it passed the Senate, allocated $90,000 to the Office of Administration, $15,000 to the Department of Labor and Industry for the totally disabled, $30,500 to the Senate for incidental expenses and $50,000 each to the Senate and House Appropriations Committees.

The House added:

—$65,000 to the House chief clerk's office for printing and other expenses.

—$55,000 to cover mileage expenses of House members and employes.

—$30,000 each to the majority leadership in the House and Senate.

—$9,500 additional for the Senate's incidental expenses.

House Majority Leader Joshua Eilberg, noting that the legislature has been in almost constant session since the beginning of current fiscal year, said expenses have been far more than anticipated.

Rep. Blaine C. Hocker, R-Dauphin, one of three Republicans who voted against the bill, said he saw the need for the added legislative funds, but questioned the $90,000 for the Office of Administration.

Eilberg said the $90,000 had been cut from the office's budget request in 1965 and was being restored at this time because the agency was running short.

Quick legislative action was needed to save the House the embarrassment of losing its automatic roll call board.

The International Roll Call System, Richmond, Va., which leases the board for $10,000 a year, had warned the House the service would be shut off if the annual rental payment, due since March, was not paid soon.

Eilberg said money set aside for the payment was used for printing costs and mileage allowances.

In other action, the House put unto position for a final vote 196 separate appropriations bills totaling $975 million to finance the bulk of state spending in the next fiscal year.

In key legislative action Tuesday:

Birth control—Rep. Martin announced that his Appropriations committee has voted to insert into a yet to be introduced appropriation for public assistance payments a provision banning use of state funds for birth control.

Roadside parks — The House Highways Committee reported to the floor an amended bill authorizing the Highways Department to establish roadside parks and develop landscape along roads partially financed by the federal government.

State police—Rep. Ronald G. Lench, D-Beaver, chairman of a special committee investigating the state police, said hearings would resume June 1 into the manpower phase of the probe. Acting commissioner Paul A. Rittlemann would be the first witness, Lench said.

Same Pistol Used

Scientist's Murder Tied To 2 Others At Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A rocket scientist and two filling station attendants who had little in common in life were linked in death today by a foreign-made .25 caliber pistol.

Police believe the same weapon killed all three men execution-style with bullets in the brain. The pistol and the slayer remained unknown.

"I feel that it is the same man," said Detective Capt. Tom Sawyer. From ballistics tests, he said, "we feel that it is the same gun." Further tests were being made.

The gun was the only known connection among the three: Loren E. Bollinger, 40, a bachelor researcher in rocket propulsion; Chester Joseph Scowden, 19, a onetime Golden Gloves boxer and high school dropout who worked at a service station near downtown Columbus, and Claude Quesenberry, 41, a construction worker until he took a job at an all-night station in West Jefferson, 10 miles west of Columbus.

Both Scowden and Quesenberry worked early-morning hours at all-night stations.

Bollinger, found shot to death Monday, had an office in a small building four blocks from the station where Scowden worked.

The building is three blocks from Ohio's state Capitol, near an old area being cleared for urban renewal. A small bar and grill occupies the first floor.

All three men had been shot in the head at close range.

Police found no witnesses to any of the slayings. Only bullets remained as clues.

Scowden and Quesenberry had been robbed. Police said no billfold was found on Bollinger's body and credit cards and his driver's license were missing.

Scowden and Quesenberry were both fathers. Bollinger was known by associates as "a loner," who talked little of his activities.

He had gone Sunday evening to work in a new office he was fixing up on the third floor. A partner in a recording studio on the building's second floor saw him at 10 p.m. Another partner in the studio found Bollinger's body in a third-floor storage area the next morning.

The building once housed a radio station. Police tests showed soundproofing prevented the shots from being heard in the bar downstairs.

Classes Set Officers At Beaver Local High

Beaver Local High School students named senior and junior class officers for 1966-67 in elections Tuesday.

Barry Green was elected president of the 1967 class, with Art Clutter, vice president; Sue Stone, secretary, and Jerry Dailey, treasurer.

Next year's junior class named Harry Warren as president, with Allen Detwiler, vice president; Barbara Lyons, secretary, and Pam Sachs, treasurer.

The AFL-CIO has about 13 million members.

Sputnik Education Role Pointed Out By Van Horn

Dr. George Van Horn, head of the Department of Education at Geneva College, discussed "The Revolution In Learning" during the luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday at the Travelers Hotel.

He pointed out "that our nation is in the midst of a new era of education which affects everyone, including those who write the textbooks, teachers, students, and families as well."

He called the launching of the first space satellite by the Soviet Union on Oct. 4, 1957, the "shot heard around the world" stunning the United States and its schools and raising questions concerning the system of education.

"The Sputnik opened the minds of people in this country," he declared. "Those who were not interested before, and had never worried about our system of education, now become interested."

Many prominent individuals in universities and in the federal government developed organizations to bring about changes in educational methods, particularly in mathematics and science, Dr. Van Horn continued.

"The whole system began to change, causing a revolution in American education, many changes tracing from that date in 1957.

"But Sputnik doesn't get all the credit — many things were changing before. This country always has been foremost in its system of education, which has been extended to educate everyone within the framework of his abilities. But the old system was slow.

"Sputnik changed this. Great minds began helping with the problem, and education became a household topic. The matter of education was pushed to the foreground, and people clamored for action."

Dr. Van Horn emphasized, however, that many problems remain to be solved in the field of education, such as housing and financing of college students, determining a program of study which will be useful, and segregation and desegregation.

He stressed the importance of starting children to learn at a very early age and developing materials for them to work with.

"We must work from the lower levels up through the top and not let up until the revolution in education is a success story for every youngster," he said in conclusion.

The speaker was introduced by Art Doak, vice president, in the absence of Robert Beatty, program chairman.

Jules Jacobs of Midland was a visiting Rotarian.

Other guests were J. W. Heppelwhite, a former Rotary member; Rod Baum, WOHI program director, and Tom Studley, representative of the Tri-State Civic Music Association.

The invocation was by Carl Werner.

E. R. Chandler presided.

Subdivisions To Pay $1,436 For Issues Placed On Ballot

Nine Columbiana County subdivisions will pay $1,436.72 as their share of the cost of submitting local questions and issue to a vote at the May 3 primaries, the County Election Board said today.

The charges against the subdivisions were certified Tuesday to County Auditor Kenneth Bell at Lisbon to be withheld from the next tax settlements. In each instance, the charge - backs cover only the cost of printing ballots and necessary legal advertising, with the county government bearing the balance of the cost through Election Board appropriations.

The East Liverpool School District will be charged $392.54 as its share of the cost of submitting a 3.5-mill levy for boosting teachers' salaries, which was rejected by a wide margin. The charge include $370.54 for ballots and $22 for legal advertising.

CHARGES against other subdivisions are:

Salem City, $166.18 for ballots and $31.97 for advertising, total of $198.15; Perry Township Fire District, $44.08 for ballots and $20.65 for advertising, total of $64.73; East Palestine School District, $128.63 for ballots and $18.75 for advertising, total of $147.38; Wellsville School District, $118.75 for ballots and $18.40 for advertising, total of $137.15.

Columbiana Village School District, $89.17 for ballots and $16.50 for advertising, total of $105.67; Leetonia School District, $72.26 for ballots and $23 for advertising, total of $95.26; Fairfield - Waterford School District, $79.44 for ballots and $15.80 for advertising, total of $95.24, and Southern Local School District, $157.50 for ballots and $43.10 for advertising, total of $200.60.

In addition, the county government will be charged $938.08 for the expense of submitting a two-tenth mill levy for mental health purposes. The charge is made up of $907.10 for ballots and $30.98 for advertising.

The charge against the county, added to the expenses against the local subdivisions, raises to $2,374.80 the overall expenses listed for the ballot and advertising.

SUBMISSION of the special questions and issues on the same date as the primary actually constituted a special election held on the same date as the party's primaries. In such an instance, the subdivision is charged only for the cost of ballots and advertising.

When a special election is held on a date other than a general or primary election, the submitting subdivision is required to pay virtually all the expenses except the cost of the poll books. In a true special election, for instance, the subdivision is billed for rental of polling places, transportation and erection of polling equipment, pay of precinct personnel and many other items.

Local subdivisions had no expenses in connection with propositions voted upon in Columbiana County from overlapping school districts. For instance, Stark and Mahoning counties furnished ballots and legal advertising for submission of bond issues and levies in the Alliance City School Dirtict, the Minerva Local School District and the West Branch Local School District.

Independence Waited In New Guyana Nation

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — The Western Hemisphere gets a new nation at midnight tonight when British Guiana becomes independent Guyana. Like most new countries, it has troubles.

Besides economic woes, the 83,000 square-mile British colony on the northern coast of South America has a history of racial strife and faces territorial claims by its neighbors.

It also can look forward to an increase in the bitter political feud between Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, an Oxford-educated Negro lawyer, and his Marxist predecessor, Cheddi Jagan, leader of the country's 220,000 East Indians. There are 175,000 Negroes in the colony. The total population is 650,000, with American Indians and other ethnic groups making up the rest.

Jangan, head of the People's Progressive party, charged at a pre-independence news conference that Burnham won power by force and fraud in the 1964 election and "will use any means" to win the next vote, scheduled before December 1968.

Road Chief Resigns Post At Madison Twp. Meeting

WEST POINT — Madison Township trustees Tuesday night accepted the resignation of Tom Candle as road superintendent, effective June 1.

It was announced that Delbert Baumgarner of the Air Beacon Rd. has been cleared for appointment as a police officer. Constable Clarence Ammon recommended hiring Baumgarner so he can be enrolled in a police school at Lisbon.

The trustees will take official action at a later date.

The contract for motor oil, gasoline and fuel oil for township vehicles was explained by two representatives of the Standard Oil Co. The contract is effective June 1 and will run through May 31, 1967.

A complaint of dust was received from a resident of Dunn Rd. The trustees also will investigate a report that a utility pole guy wire is in the roadway on Dunn Rd.

The procedures used by township police radios was explained by a representative of the Motorola Co.

A budget is to be prepared, with the first public reading set July 5. Receipts for the month totaled $876 and bills totaling $741 were ordered paid.

Six youths have applied for employment under the Economic Opportunity Act. A part-time clerk and a supervisor are needed for the project. To apply, the individual must attend the trustees' meeting. The job is open to an unemployed man or retired individual.

Ammon reported 786 miles patrolled the last month. He assisted in hunting for a missing 2½-year-old boy in St. Clair Township, investigated a burglary at the Swaney Airport, a stolen lawn mower from a home on Glenn Rd., vandalism at Beaver Local Elementary School in which one car was damaged and a burning motorbike.

Ammon reported Beaver Local School was left open three times during the month and said he was at the school the entire night during the prom dance. He apprehended a 12 - year - old boy driving a truck on township roads and referred him to County Juvenile authorities.

The next meeting will be June 7. Following this, the Madison Township Action Committee will meet.

Melody is produced by notes in succession, harmony is produced by notes in combination.

3 Draw Fines For Speeding

Three district motorists cited on speeding charges in a police radar check Tuesday on St. Clair Ave. drew fines of $10 and costs each today in Municipal Court.

All cited in a 35-mile zone on the new four-lane stretch of St. Clair, the motorists were identified as Mrs. Virginia Webb of Smiths Ferry, Mrs. Wilma B. Mason of 831 McKinnon Ave. and George E. Miller of 816 Crestview Dr.

Mrs. Webb pleaded "no contest" before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, while Mrs. Mason and Miller entered pleas of guilty.

Police said the three were cited between 11:40 a. m. and 1 p. m. yesterday in a check conducted by Patrolman Charles A. Winters. He reported Mrs. Webb was clocked at 42 miles an hour, Miller at 44 and Mrs. Mason at 55.

It was the latest in a series of radar checks the department has conducted in the last few weeks on busy thoroughfares.

Meanwhile, Charles E. Harris Jr. of Route 170, Calcutta, was fined $20 and costs and given a 20-day suspension of his operator's permit when he pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the city section of the Freeway. Police said Harris was cited at 7:16 this morning by Lt. William E. McDaniel.

The judge granted a continuance until Thursday, June 2, in the case of Ronald Lee Schweiger, 20, of Salineville R.D. 2, cited by the State Highway Patrol May 17 at 1:50 p. m. on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. on a charge of operating an unsafe auto.

Queried by the court, Schweiger said the auto belongs to his brother, who intends to junk it. The judge instructed Schweiger to return to court June 2 with proof the auto has been disposed of.

United Teachers Fete Instructor At Smorgasbord

HANOVERTON — Mrs. Mabel Hofer of Homeworth told United School teaching associates Tuesday night her first year was the hardest. "I didn't think I would go back."

Amused were the 45 diners at a United Education Association smorgasbord in the school dining room, since Mrs. Hofer will retire next month after 38 years in the profession.

Mrs. Ethel Mountz offered the group's congratulations and presented a planter and plant to the fifth - grade teacher.

Mrs. Hofer has been at United since the school was built in 1951. During her career she taught at Sawburg, now part of Marlington District; Greasy Ridge, Union Grove and North Georgetown in Knox Township, and in Sebring. Her husband, the Rev. Fred Hofer, is principal of Deerfield Elementary School and pastor of Mapleton Evangelical United Brethren Church near Robertsville.

James Clendening, vocational agriculture teacher, was re-elected UEA president, and Mrs. Alice Satterthwait was re-elected secretary. Mrs. Marjorie Fair and Mrs. Betty Gipp were elected vice president and treasurer respectively.

Clendening was chosen the association's delegate to the Ohio Education Association convention next fall. Mrs. Fair is the alternate.

outdoor chefs are very fussy!

Ever since the outdoor cooking fad began,
we've been catering
to the special needs of outdoor chefs.

Over the years, we've satisfied scores of thousands.
Many, many find just the steak, chops or chicken they want
in our self-service meat departments.
Others have specific needs . .
the steak must be 2½" thick, the chops double thick and so forth.
That's no problem.
If you don't see it...just ask. We'll be happy to help you

One other reason we're so popular with "backyard barbecuers":
the quality of our "Super-Right" Meats.
Quality so high, some meat graded U.S. Choice
just isn't perfect enough to be "Super-Right" Meat.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

The Confusing Conflict

Gen. Taylor Analyzes Viet War

The conflict in Viet Nam frequently has been called "the confusing war." Why is the United States there? What are its commitments to the Saigon government. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor has been intimately involved in the Viet Nam question, as U.S. ambassador to the country, as adviser to two presidents, and defender of administration policies there. The following article, written before the current crisis and developments in Da Nang and Saigon, gives his unofficial personal assessment of the Viet Nam situation.

By Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor
Written for Associated Press

There is an impression very generally held about the country that the situation in South Viet Nam is so confused that the average citizen can hardly be expected to understand the rights and wrongs of it. This article undertakes to demonstrate the contrary in minimum words — that in spite of their seeming complexity, the issues in the United States involvement in South Viet Nam are simple, clear and readily explained.

We are involved in South Viet Nam today because the independence of that country is being threatened by the subversive aggression conducted by the Communist leadership in North Viet Nam. Since 1954, that leadership has had the purpose of imposing Communist domination upon the South Vietnamese people against the will of the vast majority.

OUR PURPOSE, as expressed by President Johnson, is simple and direct: "Our objective is the independence of South Viet Nam and its freedom from attack. We want nothing for ourselves — only that the people of South Viet Nam be allowed to guide their own country in their own way."

In danger of being overwhelmed, the South Vietnamese people through their government have repeatedly requested the aid of the United States and we have repeatedly responded affirmatively to these requests. We have done so for three valid reasons.

The first is our traditional attitude in opposition to aggression and colonization, whether imperialist or Communist, and our historic support of the right of self-determination for all nations.

Beyond this motivation, we have a second reason in the fact that the United States is formally committed to assisting South Viet Nam under the terms of the SEATO treaty passed by the Senate in February 1955 by a vote of 82-1.

Finally, we have felt ourselves obliged to assist South Viet Nam out of consideration of the worldwide consequences to ourselves and to the free world of a Communist success in South Viet Nam. Thus, our principles, our pledged word and our self-interest all have impelled us to take the course of action which we are following.

ACTUATED by these motives, we have undertaken to cause Hanoi to cease the aggression which it is conducting against South Viet Nam and thus to allow a restoration of peace and stability in South Viet Nam and Southeast Asia. To bring the Communist leaders to this change of behavior, it has been essential to increase our combat effectiveness in the ground fighting in South Viet Nam against the Viet Cong guerrillas and the infiltrated units of the North Vietnamese army.

We are achieving this increase by developing to a maximum the strength of the armed forces and police of South Viet Nam and by adding thereto progressive increments of United States ground troops. To reduce the flow of reinforcements and men and equipment coming from North Viet Nam to support the guerrilla war, we are using our air power and that of the South Vietnamese against military targets north of the 17th Parallel.

While these military actions have been taking place, we have been doing everything possible to improve the stability and effectiveness of the governent in Saigon and in the provinces and to defend the economy of the country against the growing threat of inflation.

Finally, while all these activities go on, we are continuously engaged in a search for a peaceful solution through honorable negotiation. In combination, these activities — military, political, economic and diplomatic — are designed to convince the leaders in Hanoi that it is in their own interest to change their ways.

OUR SUCCESS in pursuing lines of action has been uneven. On the military front, thanks to the growing effectiveness of our United States ground and air forces, we have seized the initiative and are imposing very heavy casualties on the Viet Cong guerrillas and on the infiltrated regular army units of North Viet Nam. The general military situation is quite favorable, although the enemy continues to bring in reinforcements.

In March and April, we passed through a period of renewed political turbulence marked by the anti-government activities of an opposition group in the Hue-Da Nang area, composed of the Tri Quang clique of the Buddhists, the supporters of Gen. Thi — whose relief from command of the I Corps triggered the demonstrations — and the traditional dissidents in Hue-Da Nang who regularly oppose any government in Saigon. These anti-government activities have ended in an apparent compromise, based on the holding of general elections for a constitutional convention in the next few months. The forecast is for continuing political activity and unrest during the summer and fall as South Viet Nam, in the midst of war, strives to lay the foundations of constitutional government.

ON THE economic front, the evidence of inflation is increasing but the situation is receiving intensive treatment from the responsible Vietnamese and United States economists, recently assisted by representatives of the International Monetary Fund.

On the diplomatic front, there is still no indication from the Communist side of a serious desire to open peace negotiations. Actually, it is premature to expect negotiations until the Communist leaders have a compelling incentive to seek a prompt, peaceful settlement. Until they are convinced of the necessity for peace, there is the risk of a repetition of the prolonged, fruitless wrangling at Panmunjom, which lasted two years before we got a Korean armistice. That experience reminds us that the initiation of negotiations with the Communists does not necessarily mean that peace is just around the corner.

In the meantime, no one has suggested a better strategy than the one described above if we are to retain our basic objective of an independent South Viet Nam, free from attack. All other alternatives which have been suggested have serious objections. A deliberate pullout on the part of the United States is unthinkable and fortunately receives little support even from the sharpest critics of our present policy.

A HOLDING strategy has been proposed, under the terms of which our forces would give up the offensive and pass to the static defense of certain fortified bases or enclaves. Such deliberate passivity on our part would surrender large blocs of the civilian population to Viet Cong domination, would destroy the morale of the government and people of South Viet Nam, and would forego any hope of final success.

It would take the pressure off the Hanoi leaders and would remove any incentive for them to come to a conference table in a mood to negotiate a just settlement. The American toops themselves would not accept for long such an inglorious posture; neither would our people who sooner or later would say as some voices sometimes do even now: "Let's end it or get out." In the inability to end it, a sit-out would soon result in a pull-out.

The third alternative which has been suggested is the all-out use of our military strength — perhaps giving Hanoi and Peking an ultimatum to lay off South Viet Nam, followed by unlimited air attacks if they do not comply. This course runs a maximum risk of major war with Red China and furthermore destroys prematurely the government in Hanoi whose collaboration may be useful in the ultimate restoration of peace and stability in Southeast Asia.

The fourth alternative is to try to turn over the Viet Nam problem to the United Nations. Unfortunately, the United Nations does not want this problem, and could not cope with it if it were accepted. Finally, Hanoi and Peking will have absolutely nothing to do with the United Nations and will accept no participation by that body in any settlement.

We know of no other alternatives than those discussed above. Hence, we are left with the present course of action.

Rusk Reaffirms Willingness For Viet Negotiations

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk has reiterated this nation's willingness to negotiate an end to the Viet Nam conflict.

Rusk, who spoke Tuesday night at a dinner of the Council on Foreign Relations, said he "would be in Geneva literally tomorrow if there were anyone there to negotiate peace with."

In a question-and-answer period after his address, Rusk said "there is no gimmick, there is no special device, there is no formula which is going to move us toward peace" if North Viet Nam and Communist China are "determined to seize South Viet Nam by force."

"When all the frosting is off the cake," he said, "it boils down to this—when they keep coming at you, do you get out of the war or meet them? We shall meet them."

The council's first Edward R. Murrow Fellowship for American foreign correspondents was given to Malcolm W. Browne, 35, former Associated Press bureau chief in Saigon who now is a freelance writer in South Viet Nam. The award is named for the late broadcaster and director of the United States Information Agency.

Showers Extend Over Deep South

By The Associated Press

There were wet spots in sections of the South but generally dry weather prevailed in most of the nation today.

Thunderstorms and showers continued in areas from eastern Texas to the middle Atlantic Coast. More than an inch of rain fell at Columbia, S.C., in a six-hour period.

Thunderstorms, with heavy rain and hail, pounded areas during the night from the upper Ohio Valley to the Gulf of Mexico. A small tornado struck Plant City, Fla., about 15 miles east of Tampa, and minor damage was reported. Hail peppered scattered sections of western and central Texas.

Skies were mostly clear in the Midwest and in the western half of the nation. Cooler air moved into the central part of the country, dropping temperatures to near normal. The cool belt was expected to extend through much of the Ohio Valley and New England.

Gang Violence Claims 29th Victim In Boston

REVERE, Mass. (AP)—A 36-year-old man, driving alone in his car, was shot and killed today by a volley of shots fired from another car in what police called another of Greater Boston's gangland slayings.

Police identified the dead man as Cornelius Hughes of Malden. They said his brother, Stephen, was wounded by shots in an attempted slaying in March.

The killing raises to 29 the number of deaths in Greater Boston's gang violence that began in March, 1964.

Police said Hughes was an ex-convict, free on personal recognizance pending trial on charges of conspiracy and larceny.

McCloy Advises U.S. To Retain Units In Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — John J. McCloy, veteran diplomatic trouble shooter for American presidents, told senators today the United States shouldn't be talking about slashing its troops in Europe to a token force.

"I do not believe that we should now be talking about maintaining only a token force," McCloy told a Senate subcommittee. "This would only confirm the skeptics in their claims of our unreliability and confound our loyal partners."

Thus McCloy, postwar high commissioner for Germany and former president of the World Bank, joined the debate centering on Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's proposal that the time may be ripe for Western Europe to take over the primary responsibility for its defense.

In testimony prepared for Sen. Henry M. Jackson's subcommittee on national security, which has been conducting hearings on North Atlantic Treaty Organization problems, McCloy said "the situation requires that our guarantees should be maintained in full force."

Ruling Seen Jeopardizing NAACP Role

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People told the Supreme Court today its very survival — and that of the entire civil rights movement — may have been imperiled by a recent decision to let an $85,793 Georgia picketing judgment stand.

Asking the justices to reconsider the case, the NAACP said the high court's action opened the door to damage suits which could "harass, impoverish and eventually paralyze" the organization.

The Supreme Court dismissed without explanation April 27 an NAACP appeal from a Georgia ruling that the national association can be held liable for picketing ordered by its Savannah branch.

The 5-4 ruling produced a furious dissent by Justice William O. Douglas, who warned that "juries might run pell-mell" to destroy "unpopular groups" like the NAACP.

The NAACP had argued that it had no control over the picketing of a Savannah grocery store whose owner sued it, the local branch and local offices for damages.

Since the decision was announced, the NAACP said in a brief filed with the high court, it has been named a defendant with the local branch in a similar suit in Virginia and has been threatened with a third such suit in Philadelphia.

The NAACP brief gave no details of the cases, but an official told a reporter that in one the owner of a Victoria, Va., department store is asking $100,000 in punitive damages as a result of pamphlets passed out in front of his store.

In the Philadelphia suit, the official said, nursing homes which were picketed have threatened to sue for $100,000 in damages.

"If, in less than a month," the NAACP brief said, "petitioner has already incurred the onerous obligation of defending two such actions involving activities of its local branches, the course of future events is not difficult to anticipate."

Sergeant Spends Furlough In City

Sgt. Buddy Joe Hager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Jones of 610 Inez Ave. arrived home Monday on furlough after serving three years in Germany.

He has been stationed at Bad Hersfeld with the 14th armored cavalry regiment's third reconnaissance squadron along the northern sector of the East-West German border.

Sgt. Hager, a squad leader, enlisted in the Army in March 1961, serving 18 months in Korea. On his return to the states, he re-enlisted for six more years and was assigned to Germany.

He will report to Ft. Lewis in the state of Washington on June 15.

The sergeant is a graduate of East Liverpool High School.

On A. A. Milne's Re-Write Starts Winnie The Pooh

LONDON (AP) —They're rewriting Winnie the Pooh—for children.

For 42 years—since the late A.A. Milne wrote the-first Winnie the Pooh books—many literate persons have been under the impression that Milne wrote for children.

In fact he wrote with one particular child in mind, his son, Christopher Robin Milne.

Now 45, Christopher Milne says: "I was 5 when the first book came out. I had no trouble understanding it."

Responsible for the rewrite is a British publishing company, Young World Products. It is bringing out eight Pooh books—six of them rewrites—to "provide an opportunity for the mass market to meet Winnie the Pooh."

The new editions will be, officially, books from the film in which Walt Disney made Winnie a movie star.

Rosemary Garland, a children's author who is doing the rewrite on Pooh, said:

"I think that Milne's very adult. Many of his Poohisms are a very sophisticated form of humor. I'm abridging Milne's sentences."

The rewriting cuts the original text by 90 per cent, according to Peter Belbin, a director of the publishing firm.

For example, Milne's story about piglet covers eight full pages of text taking up several thousand words. The abridged edition tells the story in 28 pages, but each page has only 20-40 words beneath a large illustration.

Pennsy Traffic Halted By Slide At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A rockslide halted traffic Tuesday night on the Pennsylvania Railroad's main track to St. Louis.

Big boulders, some weighing an estimated 30 tons, slid down a steep hillside in Pittsburgh, blocking all four tracks.

No trains were hit by the boulders which tumbled from Duquesne Heights across the Monongahela River from downtown Pittsburgh.

The railroad said trains were re-routed over tracks on the North Side. Some passenger trains were delayed.

Two tracks were opened last night.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

His Line Is Busy

The odds against selling a new show to television are mounting all the time.

Hal Humphrey

First you need around $250,000 to gamble on a half-hour pilot film ($450,000 if it's an hour show), or if you are just a guy with an idea and no money you must get the ear of one of the network vice presidents in charge of programs and interest him in putting up the money and becoming a partner—assuming he likes your idea. How do you go about reaching the program v.p.? Well, it isn't easy, and if you think phoning him is the most direct way, forget it.

LEONARD GOLDBERG, ABC-TV's new young chief of programs, made his first trip to the Hollywood film mills since being promoted to the job, and before he got out of bed the next morning the hotel operator had 40 phone messages for him.

"I'd guess that 80 per cent of them were from people wanting to pitch new shows at me," says Goldberg, himself a bit incredulous at this reaction to his arrival. "One fellow who called me said, 'Mr. Goldberg, you have just eight minutes to make up your mind on this one because I promised CBS I'd call them by 12 o'clock.' "

Although the youngest (he's 32) to hold this key spot in network TV, Goldberg has been around too many corners to fall for that wheezy play. He probably used it himself when he was an agency man with Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn some years ago.

"I WOULDN'T suggest that a phone call is the way to initiate getting an idea sold anyway," Goldberg adds. "It's usually done with a written presentation or by our looking at a pilot already done.

"For example, one of our new series for next season is 'Love on a Rooftop' and it came from Screen Gems. It was their idea completely. Another of Screen Gems' was 'Iron Horse' which we bought after suggesting Dale Robertson as the star. Sometimes the idea originates with ABC; then we turn it over to a producer."

TV has become too expensive for any neophyte who might knock on a network door with just an idea, or pick up the phone. As Goldberg points out, the three networks this year spend $25 million on pilot films and scrips for new shows.

WITH THAT MUCH at stake, they like to know with whom they are dealing. This, of course, leads to considerable in-breeding, with little chance of new blood entering the TV strain. TV program v.p.s feel they must depend on producers with "good track records."

Even so, Goldberg admits there never are enough good shows to go on the air each fall, and to prove that statement is the fact two-thirds or more of the new shows in every new season fail to make it for a second season.

From a casualty viewpoint, ABC had the worst season this time it has ever experienced. By the first of the year it was announcing a "second season" and soon after that a "third season."

Undoubtedly this condition at ABC led to the resignation of Ed Scherick, Goldberg's predecessor and the man he worked under as v.p. in charge of the network's daytime programming.

GOLDBERG has another season to go before the decisions he is making now come to roost on ABC's 1967-68 schedule, and then he will try to survive the sudden-death rating game, which means a substantial number of those 1,100 Nielsen audimetered homes must be tuned to his shows the first few weeks or be ticketed for the bone pile.

"I believe ABC will be operating on a basis of sticking to their program choices longer," Goldberg says, perhaps more hopefully than confidently. "Many shows require a longer time to make their impact on the viewers."

It's possible, of course, that Goldberg has a stronger lash-up with the corporate hierarchy at ABC than the skeptics believe. When Scherick left, nobody along Madison avenue figured Goldberg for the job.

"He's too young," predicted the same savants who today are waiting in line for Goldberg's phone to stop ringing.

Boy, Iron Cord Cause Denver Power Outage

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Public Service Co. officials say that a boy and an electric iron cord caused a 19-minute power interruption recently in a portion of Denver.

A company spokesman said a witness saw an unidentified boy throw the cord into the company's Harrison station where it caused a short.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Children Should Learn Of Plagiarism

A number of the children's magazines print short verse which children send in to them. Having been editor of one of these magazines for a number of years, I have read a great many "poems" sent in by children as their very own which were written by others and published a few many years ago.

Dr. Garry Myers

As required by most children's publications, a statement by a parent or teacher that it is the child's creation has accompanied the submission. Among the authors most often plagiarized by children is Robert Louis Stevenson.

The single poem of his sent us most often is, "The Friendly Cow," and the statement of assurance is most frequently by a teacher.

AS SEVERAL of our editors read the offerings by children, and as we check against the leading anthologies of the children's verse, we catch most of the plagiarisms. But once in a long while we don't catch it and publish one of them, only to be apprised of the error by one or many children who later discover the plagiarism and wonder why we have "tried to deceive them."

Some years ago the editor of another child's magazine said she was about to discontinue printing any "poems" sent in by children "as so many plagiarized." Other editors have been faced with this problem. It's doubtful if any editor can catch all plagiarisms, not having read all the verses which have ever been published.

Often the teacher or parent stating, "It is the child's very own," when it isn't, may have seen the the child write it. He could have written it from memory. Indeed, it is conceivable that an occasional child has heard or read a poem he liked and remembered it so well that he actually supposed it was his very own. So we need to be charitable with children.

RIGHTLY WE read nursery rhymes to little children as young as two, three or five. Nearly all these rhymes appear in books without the name of the original author or publisher attached. Nobody knows who first wrote or published them. But as soon as we begin to read verse whose author is at the head or bottom of it, let us call the name of this author to the child's attention. Sometimes the poem has attached to it the word "anonymous," acknowledging that the author's name is unknown. To this fact we also should call the child's attention as we read it to him or as he reads it himself.

We should observe these matters with selections of prose. Unfortunately many basal primary school readers have prose, though rarely verse, whose author's name is omitted. Therefore, the child may not get practice in his early years at connecting what he reads with the original author and publisher.

No doubt all of us use, moreover, whole sentences and phrases we have read elsewhere. In this way we enrich our verbal and written expression. As children grow older and write prose of their own, we rightly encourage them to imitate expressions of great authors. But very early we could and should try to induce them, when using several whole sentences in sequence to put quotation marks around them.

CHILDREN in the higher grades when writing special papers go to the encyclopaedia or other books for source material and often will copy out whole paragraphs as their own. Then they not only are failing to respect an author but also failing to digest written materials and to express the ideas in their own words. Involved is not only an ethical problem but the problem of good reading and learning.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Get In Shape To Swim

Oh, to be swim suit shape, now that summer's near! At this season exercise requests focus on the thighline. A skeptical reader writes:

Ida Jean Kain

"Tell us the truth, can thigh muscles be toned? My thighs are just plain flabby, with ugly pads of fat on the inner thighline. My weight is now normal, but my thighs look like those of an old woman. I'm only 40. I walk, dance and climb stairs, but obviously these muscles are hard to reach. I'll follow your exercise instruction to the letter. . ."

—:—

ANOTHER lament: "I can't wear straight skirts or shorts because of a 'basketball' bulge on the outer side of my upper thighline. How can these bulges be banished?"

The inner and outer thighlines constitute muscular "dead" areas because they are used very little in everyday movements. It takes a special flexion and adduction action to tone the thighs. Here is an isometric toner:

Position: Use two dining room type chairs. Sit on edge of chair seat, with second chair in front of you within reach of extended legs.

Movement: Separate your legs and place inside border of each foot against outside of facing chair legs. Press inward against chair legs. Hold contraction for a slow count of six. Relax, repeat five times. To tone outer thighline, place outside border of each foot against inside of facing chair legs. Press feet outward. H-o-l-d.

The second exercise is a sure toner for inner thighline.

Position: Lie on right side, legs straight down. Have head pillowed on arm.

Movement: Raise top leg (left leg) about 12 inches sidewards and up. Hold. Now, raise right leg up to meet left leg. H-o-l-d. Hold for a slow count of six, return legs to floor and repeat five times. Change sides and repeat. It's the bottom leg that sets the toning action.

TO BANISH the outer thighline bulge, stretch, bend and hold the muscular contraction.

Position: Standing, feet well apart. Arch arms overhead, clasp fingers. Pull up with middle muscles, pull in strongly so the diagonal abdominals which bound the sides of the hip just below waist area will be brought into action.

Action: Bend slowly sidewards as far as comfortable. At the end of the bend, h-o-l-d to a slow count of six. No movement. Come back to center, pull slim again, bend to opposite side and hold. Repeat five times, twice daily.

With this trio of exercises you'll see toning results in a single week.

Send long stamped, self - addressed envelope for Isometric Exercises. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Detroit Sifts Sales Reports For Meaning

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry tried to figure out today whether mid-May auto sales figures were good or bad.

Optimists were cheered that the 242,407 sales posted May 11-20 ran about 50,000 cars ahead of the early May totals.

Others noted that the latest total lagged about 3,000 units behind the corresponding 10 days of last year. It also marked the fourth time in the last five 10-day periods that sales figures trailed those of a year ago.

The sales pattern was the same at all four auto companies.

General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors all sold more cars than they did in the opening 10 days of this month when sales dipped sharply. Each sold fewer cars than in May 11-20 1965.

Pentagon's Irritated

NATO's 'Shirkers' Face Washington's Pressure

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sentiment appears to be growing in the Pentagon for a get-tough attitude toward North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations that shirk their common defense responsibilities.

Some key authorities have indicated they would like to see U.S. forces thinned down in Europe.

A source said failure of West Germany to meet a two-year commitment to buy about $1.3 billion in arms and military supplies from the United States could bring moves toward an American troop reduction there.

So far — with only a little more than a year to go in the commitment period — Germany is more than $1 billion short in its promised purchases, officials said.

The rising irritation in the Defense Department is stimulated by:

—Growing manpower requirements for the Viet Nam war at a time when the United States has the equivalent of six Army divisions and a total of nearly 225,000 fighting men massed along the iron curtain in Germany.

—Continued reluctance by NATO countries, including Germany, to maintain their defense budgets and contribute to their abilities in the defense of Europe.

It is understood that West German Defense Minister Kai-Uwe Von Hassel received little sympathy from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara during recent conferences here in which Von Hassel told of Germany's difficulties in meeting its agreement to buy war goods from the United States.

This agreement, and others that preceded it, are designed to offset U.S. costs in maintaining a major combat force in Germany.

In a speech to the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Montreal last week, McNamara once again underscored his views that prosperous allies must do more.

"We have had, over the last few years, as many men in uniform as all the nations of Western Europe combined — even though they have a population half again greater than our own,' McNamara said.

"Now, the American people are not going to shirk their obligations in any part of the world, but they clearly cannot be expected to bear a disproportionate share of the common burden indefinitely."

The U.S. officials are particularly incensed by graphs showing economic growth and defense spending in the NATO countries.

What bothers them is a leveling off in defense spending in some of these countries at a time when their gross national products are rising.

The Institute of Strategic Studies estimates West German defense spending this year will total $4.37 billion — well below the 1965 estimate of $5 billion.

Germany has 12 divisions in its army but U.S. military leaders complain that Germany has not provided the backup forces, the support structure and logistic requirements that would make this 12 division force a first-class army.

McNamara is reported to have told the Germans that he will not stand by and see the U.S. 7th army in Germany in a position where its flanks are held by inadequate German

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of Ruth E. Miller who passed away one year ago today, May 25, 1965.
When the children have gone to bed and I sit here all alone,
To have you in the other chair would seem so much like home.
They say time heals all sorrow and helps one to forget.
But time so far has only proved how much we miss you yet.
Sadly missed by husband, children, mother and sister.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, May 25, the 145th day of 1966. There are 220 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1787, the first regular session of the Constitutional Convention met in Philadelphia and elected George Washington as its president.

On this date

In 1862, Gen. "Stonewall" Jackson and his Confederate troops were defeated in battle in Winchester, Va.

In 1879, St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York was dedicated.

In 1903, the Lackawanna and Wyoming Valley Railroad put into service the first third-rail electric railway.

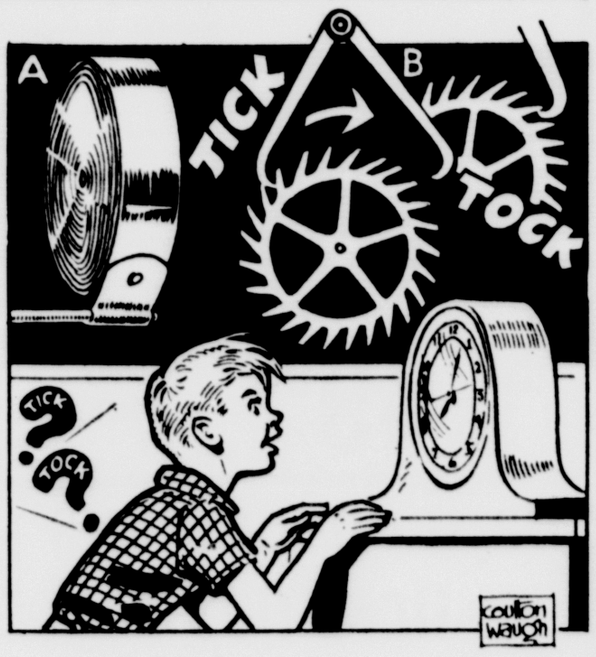

In 1957, the third tube of New York's Lincoln Tunnel, the first triple-tube traffic tunnel in the world, was opened to traffic.

Ten years ago—The nation's air defense commander, Gen. Earl Partridge, told a Senate subcommittee that U.S. fighter planes could not fly high or fast enough to intercept the new Soviet intercontinental bomber.

Five years ago — President John F. Kennedy asked Congress to approve programs designed to put a man on the moon before 1970, expand U.S. non - nuclear military strength and increase foreign aid.

One year ago—A crisis developed in the South Viet Nam government when Chief of State Phan Khac Suu refused to sign a decree of Premier Phan Huy Quat which would have replaced four Cabinet ministers.

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOCKS

QUESTION: What makes a clock give a tick-tock sound?

ANSWER: For a clock's hands to move, there must be some power driving it. Many clocks these days are run by electricity. But most of the small clocks you see, the ones which go tick-tock, derive their power from a coiled spring which is inside (A in our picture). When you wind the clock, you are tightening this spring; as it unwinds, it puts out power which runs the clock.

The spring is mounted on a large wheel whose cogs cause other wheels, connected with the clock's hands, to move very slowly. A balance wheel, turning back and forth, keeps the hands' movement steady and prevents the spring from unwinding too fast. A clever little device, the escapement (B), allows just the right amount of power to get through. A swinging bar has a foot which brings up with a sharp "tick" against a foot of a wheel below. Then it lifts up and allows the wheel to move just a little. There is another tick, or tock, as the other foot of the bar strikes against another tooth of the wheel. Tick, tock—the movement goes steadily on, driving the hands which tell us the time.

FOR YOU TO DO: Naturally you wouldn't want to take a good, working clock apart. But perhaps your parents or friends can give you an old one they don't need. Then take it apart and look for the spring, the balance wheel, the escapement. And—here's a challenge—put it together again!

Cynthia Carter of Phoenix, N. Y., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.
